

2015 Instructions for Form FTB 3514

California Earned Income Tax Credit

References in these instructions are to the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) as of January 1, 2015, and to the California Revenue and Taxation Code (R&TC).

What's New

For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2015, the refundable California Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) is available to taxpayers who earned wage income in California. This credit is similar to the federal Earned Income Credit (EIC) but with different income limitations. EITC reduces your California tax obligation, or allows a refund if no California tax is due. You may qualify if you have earned income of less than $13,870. You do not need a child to qualify, but must file a California tax return to claim the credit and attach a completed form FTB 3514.

General Information

In general, for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2015, California law conforms to the IRC as of January 1, 2015. However, there are continuing differences between California and federal law. When California conforms to federal tax law changes, we do not always adopt all of the changes made at the federal level. For more information, go to ftb.ca.gov and search for conformity. Additional information can be found in FTB Pub. 1001, Supplemental Guidelines to California Adjustments, the instructions for California Schedule CA (540 or 540NR), and the Business Entity tax booklets.

The instructions provided with California tax forms are a summary of California tax law and are only intended to aid taxpayers in preparing their state income tax returns. We include information that is most useful to the greatest number of taxpayers in the limited space available. It is not possible to include all requirements of the California Revenue and Taxation Code (R&TC) in the tax booklets. Taxpayers should not consider the tax booklets as authoritative law.

Registered Domestic Partners (RDPs)

For purposes of California income tax, references to a spouse, husband, or wife also refer to a California registered domestic partner (RDP), unless otherwise specified. When we use the initials RDP they refer to both a California registered domestic "partner" and a California registered domestic "partnership," as applicable. For more information on RDPs, get FTB Pub. 737, Tax Information for Registered Domestic Partners.

A Purpose

You may qualify to claim the 2015 California EITC if you (and your spouse/RDP) earned wage income in California. You do not need a child to qualify. Use form FTB 3514 to determine whether you qualify to claim the credit, provide information about your qualifying children, if applicable, and to figure the amount of your credit.

B Differences in California and Federal Law

The differences between California and federal law are as follows:

- California allows this credit for wage income earned in California (wages, salaries, tips and other employee compensation) that is subject to California withholding.
- California does not allow the credit for self-employment income.
- If you were a nonresident, you must have earned income from working in California.
- Both your earned income and federal adjusted gross income (AGI) must be less than $53,267 to qualify for the federal credit, and less than $13,870 to qualify for the California credit.
- You may elect to include all of your (and/or all of your spouse/RDP's if filing jointly) nontaxable military combat pay in earned income for California purposes, whether or not you elect to include it for federal purposes. Get FTB Pub. 1032, Tax Information for Military Personnel, for special rules that apply to military personnel claiming the EITC.

Specific Instructions

If certain requirements are met, you may claim the EITC even if you do not have a qualifying child. The amount of the credit is greater if you have a qualifying child, and increases with each child that qualifies, up to a maximum of three children. Follow Step 1 through Step 6 below to determine if you qualify for the credit and to figure the amount of the credit.

Attach the completed form FTB 3514, California Earned Income Tax Credit, to your Form 540 or 540 2EZ, California Resident Income Tax Return; or Long or Short Form 540NR, California Nonresident or Part-Year Resident Income Tax Return, if you claim the California EITC.

Qualifying Child Definition

A qualifying child for the EITC is a child who meets the following conditions:

- Is your son, daughter, stepchild, foster child, brother, sister, stepbrother, stepsister, half brother, half sister, or a descendant of any of them (for example, your grandchild, niece, or nephew).
- Is under age 19 at the end of 2015 and younger than you (or your spouse/RDP, if filing jointly), or under age 24 at the end of 2015, a student, and younger than you (or your spouse/RDP, if filing jointly), or any age and permanently and totally disabled.
- Is not filing a joint return for 2015 or is filing a joint return for 2015 only to claim a refund of withheld income tax or estimated tax paid. Get federal Publication 596, Earned Income Credit, for examples.
- Lived with you in California for more than half of 2015. If the child did not live with you for the required time, see exceptions in the instructions for line 11.

Note. If the child was married or meets the conditions to be a qualifying child of another person (other than your spouse/RDP if filing a joint return), special rules apply. Get federal Publication 596 for more information.

Qualifying Child Questionnaire

- a. Do you have at least one child who meets the conditions to be your qualifying child?

Yes Continue.
No Go to Step 4.

- b. Are you filing a joint return for 2015?

Yes Complete form FTB 3514, Part III, line 5 through line 12. Go to Step 5.
No Continue.

- c. Could you be a qualifying child of another person for 2015? (Answer "No" if the other person is not required to file, and is not filing, a 2015 tax return or is filing a 2015 return only to claim a refund of withheld income tax or estimated tax paid. Get federal Publication 596 for examples.)

Yes Stop here, you cannot take the credit.
No Complete form FTB 3514, Part III, line 5 through line 12. Go to Step 5.

Line 7 – SSN

The child must have a valid SSN, as defined below, unless the child was born and died in 2015. If your child was born alive and died in 2015 and did not have an SSN, enter "Died" on this line and attach a copy of the child's birth certificate, death certificate, or hospital medical records.

Valid SSN. For the EITC, a valid SSN is a number issued by the Social Security Administration unless "Not Valid for Employment" is printed on the social security card and the number was issued solely to allow the recipient of the SSN to apply for or receive a federally funded benefit. However, if "Valid for Work Only With DHS Authorization" is printed on the social security card, the SSN is valid for EITC purposes only as long as the DHS authorization is still valid.

An ITIN, Individual Taxpayer Identification Number or ATIN, Adoption Taxpayer Identification Number cannot be used to claim EITC. If you or your child has an ITIN or ATIN and later gets a SSN that is valid for employment, you may be able to file an amended return. Use Form 540X, Amended Individual Income Tax Return, to correct your return. Get Form 540X at ftb.ca.gov.

If you did not have an SSN by the due date of your 2015 return (including extensions), you cannot claim the EITC on either your original or an amended 2015 return, even if you later get an SSN. Also, if a child did not have an SSN by the due date of your return (including extensions), you cannot count that child as a qualifying child in figuring the EITC on either your original or an amended 2015 return, even if that child later gets an SSN.

Line 9a – Student

A student is a child who during any part of 5 calendar months of 2015 was enrolled as a full-time student at a school, or took a full-time, on-farm training course given by a school or a state, county, or local government agency. A school includes a technical, trade, or mechanical school. It does not include an on-the-job training course, correspondence school, or school offering courses only through the Internet.

Line 9b – Permanently and totally disabled

A person is permanently and totally disabled if, at any time in 2015, the person could not engage in any substantial gainful activity because of a physical or mental condition and a doctor has determined that this condition (a) has lasted or can be expected to last continuously for at least a year, or (b) can be expected to lead to death.

Line 10 – Child's relationship to you

For additional information see qualifying child definition.

Line 11 – Number of days child lived with you

Enter the number of days the child lived with you in California during 2015. To qualify, the child must have the same principal place of residence in California as you for more than half of 2015, defined as 183 days or more. If the child was born or died in 2015 and your home was the child's home for more than half the time he or she was alive during 2015, enter "365." Do not enter more than 365 days. If the child did not live with you for the required time, temporary absences may count as time lived at home. For more information get federal Publication 596.

Line 12 – Child's physical address

Enter the physical address where the child resided during 2015. This should be the address of the principal place of residence in California where the child lived with you for more than half of 2015. If you elect to include your nontaxable military combat pay in earned income for California EITC purposes, include the amount from federal Form W-2, Wage and Tax Statement, Box 12, Code Q. If you are filing a joint return, both you and/or your spouse/RDP can elect to include your own nontaxable military combat pay for California EITC purposes. Each must include all of their nontaxable military combat pay, not just a portion of it.
