Legislative Changes

- ◆ The Cancer Clinical Trial Tax Credit is available for an oncologist whose practice is located in rural New Mexico. The credit amount is $1,000 for each patient participating in a cancer clinical trial under the taxpayer's supervision, to a maximum of $4,000. The credit can only be claimed for the taxable year in which the physician participates as an investigator in a clinical trial. See line 19, Schedule PIT-CR.
- ◆ For tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2012, the penalty for underpayment of estimated tax is not applied if the difference between the tax for the current year less amounts withheld is under $1,000.
- ◆ A new Veterans Employment Tax Credit was enacted that provides a business owner with a tax credit for up to $1,000 for wages paid to each qualified military veteran who is employed full time in New Mexico by the taxpayer. See line 20, Schedule PIT-CR.
- ◆ Extend Angel Investment Tax Credit - This law extends the angel investment credit through December 31, 2016. The credit was set to expire on December 31, 2011. See line 12, Schedule PIT-CR.
- ◆ For tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2013, two new voluntary contributions will be allowed for a taxpayer who wishes to donate all or a part of their refund to the Veterans Enterprise Fund or to the lottery tuition fund. Look for more information on the 2013 New Mexico personal income tax return.

For a complete list of tax law changes enacted during 2012, see Publication B-100.24, 2012 Legislative Summary.

Important Changes Affecting Refund Express - Direct Deposit

- ◆ A direct deposit of your refund, "Refund Express", may not be made to a bank account located at a financial institution outside the territorial jurisdiction of the United States.

In order to comply with new federal banking rules, anyone wishing to have their refund directly deposited into their account must answer an additional question when completing the Refund Express portion of your return. If you do not answer the question your refund will be mailed to you in the form of a paper check. If you answer the question incorrectly, your refund may be delayed, rejected or frozen by the National Automated Clearing House Association (NACHA) or the Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC). The question will ask whether the refund will go to or through an account located outside the United States. The question also warns you that if the answer is "yes", you should not choose the Refund Express option for delivering your refund. Your options are to use a different bank account or to leave the Refund Express portion of your return blank and a paper check will be mailed to the address on the return. See the instructions for more details.

A financial institution is located within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States if it is:

- Located within the United States;
 - Located on a United States military base; or
 - Located in American Samoa, Guam, the Northern Mariana Islands, Puerto Rico or the U.S. Virgin Islands

Tax Rebates and Credits Available to Qualifying Low-income Filers

Taxpayers not required to file a federal tax return with the IRS also are not required to file a New Mexico Personal Income Tax return, BUT they may want to do so to claim certain rebates and credits for low-income filers. You may also want to review Schedule PIT-RC and instructions to determine whether you qualify for any of the low-income rebates and credits that may be claimed on that schedule. You may also refer to Brochure #2, Tax Information for New Mexico's Low-Income Filers, on the Department web page, www.tax.newmexico.gov. Search for Brochure #2.

- ◆ Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) - You may be eligible for an Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) if you are a low-income working individual or family. The EITC reduces your federal tax and may result in a refund from the IRS. To see if you may claim the credit, read the rules in the federal 1040, 1040A, and 1040EZ tax packages or see IRS Publication 596. You may also read about the EITC on the IRS web site at www.irs.gov and download the publication there.
- ◆ Working Families Tax Credit - A resident who was a New Mexico resident during any part of 2012 and who files a New Mexico personal income tax return may claim a credit in an amount equal to ten percent of the Federal EITC for which that individual is eligible for the same tax year. An individual who qualifies for the working families tax credit may receive a refund if the credit exceeds the income tax liability for the tax year of the claim.
- ◆ Low-Income Comprehensive Tax Rebate - Residents of New Mexico who have been physically present in New Mexico for at least six months during the 2012 tax year and whose modified gross income is $22,000 or less may claim the low-income comprehensive tax rebate. NOTE: You cannot claim this rebate if you were eligible to be claimed as a dependent of another taxpayer for 2012, or you were an inmate of a public institution for more than six months during 2012.
- ◆ Low- and Middle-Income Tax Deduction - A personal income tax exemption is offered for low- and middle-income taxpayers. The maximum is $2,500 for each person claimed as an exemption. The amount varies according to filing status and federal adjusted gross income. Single persons qualify for the exemption when federal adjusted gross income is $36,667 or less; married persons filing joint returns, surviving spouses and head of household filers qualify when federal adjusted gross income is $55,000 or less, and married persons filing separate qualify when federal adjusted gross income is $27,500 or less.
- ◆ Child Day Care Credit - New Mexico residents who have a modified gross income of $30,160 or less, may claim a credit (which may not exceed $1,200) for expenses for dependent child day care necessary to enable gainful employment. The claimant, and spouse if applicable, must be gainfully employed for that part of the tax year for which the credit is claimed, not be a recipient of public assistance under the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families program (TANF), the New Mexico Works Act or similar program for that part of the tax year for which the credit is claimed, and not have been reimbursed or compensated for the expenses in any way. Other restrictions apply to both the claimant and the caregiver. See the instructions.
- ◆ Property Tax Rebate - New Mexico residents age 65 and older, who have a modified gross income of $16,000 or less, may qualify for the property tax rebate. The property tax rebate helps with tax billed or rent paid on your principal place of residence. The property tax rebate may not exceed $250 ($125 for a married taxpayer filing a separate return). The taxpayer must be physically present in New Mexico for at least 6 months during 2012, and neither eligible to be claimed, nor actually claimed, as a dependent of another taxpayer for 2012, and was not an inmate for more than 6 months during 2012.
- ◆ Property Tax Rebate for Low-Income Residents of Los Alamos or Santa Fe Counties - A resident whose principal place of residence is in Los Alamos or Santa Fe County only; has a modified gross income of $24,000 or less; was a resident of New Mexico during 2012; was physically present in New Mexico for at least 6 months during 2012; is neither eligible to be claimed, nor actually claimed, as a dependent of another taxpayer for 2012; and was not an inmate of a public institution for more than 6 months during 2012, may qualify for this rebate. NOTE: The property tax rebate may not exceed $350 ($175 for a married taxpayer filing a separate return).

GENERAL INFORMATION

WHO MUST FILE

New Mexico's law says every person:

- who is a New Mexico resident or has income from New Mexico sources, and
 - who is required to file a federal income tax return,
- must file a personal income tax return in New Mexico.

New Mexico Residents

If you are a New Mexico resident, you must file a New Mexico return if you meet any of the following conditions:

- You have to file a federal return.
- You want to claim a refund of any New Mexico state income tax withheld from your pay.
- You want to claim any New Mexico rebates or credits.

Non-residents

Non-residents, including foreign nationals and persons who reside in states that do not have income taxes must file here when they have a federal filing requirement and have income from any New Mexico source whatsoever.

Military Servicemembers

If you are a member of the United States armed forces, were a resident of New Mexico at the time of enlistment, and have not changed your legal residence for purposes of withholding state income tax from military pay, your income may be taxable to New Mexico. You are required to file a resident return. Note: you may claim a deduction for military active duty pay included in federal adjusted gross income.

You are still a New Mexico resident if your permanent home (domicile) was in New Mexico when you entered the military, and you kept New Mexico as your legal residence for state withholding tax purposes. File a New Mexico resident return even if you are presently serving outside New Mexico.

Your military pay is not subject to New Mexico income tax if your permanent home (domicile) was in New Mexico when you entered the military, but you have established domicile in another state and changed your legal residence for withholding state income tax.

Military pay of an enrolled member of an Indian nation, tribe or pueblo is exempt when the servicemember's home of record is on the lands of that Indian nation, tribe or pueblo and the legal residence for state withholding tax purposes has not been changed.

Military Servicemember's Spouse

Beginning with the tax year 2009, the Military Spouses Residency Relief Act allows a military servicemember's spouse, who moves to a state solely to be with their spouse who is in that state because of military orders, to keep the residency status of their state of domicile and allocate their non-military wages, salaries, tips and other income from services performed, to their state of residence, even if it was earned in another state.

Certain restrictions apply:

- The servicemember must have declared "legal residence for purposes of withholding state income taxes from military pay" in the other state.
- The servicemember must be in the state in compliance with military orders.
- The servicemember's spouse must be in the state solely to be with their spouse.

NOTE: The non-resident servicemember must continue to allocate non-military income from services performed to the state in which the income was earned.

A resident of New Mexico who is a qualifying servicemember's spouse living in another state, completes New Mexico Form PIT-1, as a resident taxpayer and allocates wages, salaries, tips and other income from services performed on Schedule PIT-B, as if from New Mexico sources. They do so, even if the income was earned in another state. See Guidance for New Mexico Resident Military Spouses Claiming Relief From Another State's Income and Withholding Tax Requirements, on the Department's web site at www.tax.newmexico.gov for details. Search for Form RPD-41348 and select the Guide link.

A non-resident of New Mexico who is a qualifying servicemember's spouse living in New Mexico, completes New Mexico Form PIT-1, as a non-resident taxpayer and allocates income from services performed in New Mexico to their state of residence on Schedule PIT-B. A part-year or first-year New Mexico resident who is a qualifying servicemember's spouse allocates income from services performed in New Mexico to New Mexico during periods in which they were residents of New Mexico.

A military servicemember's spouse, who is eligible to claim an exempt New Mexico withholding status based on the Military Spouses Residency Relief Act, must annually submit Form RPD-41348, Military Spouse Withholding Tax Exemption Statement, to the employer or payor responsible for withholding New Mexico tax. A copy, signed by the employer or payor, must be kept in the taxpayer's records. Do not submit Form RPD-41348 with Form PIT-1 unless the Department requests the copy. A new Form RPD-41348 must be signed by the employer or payor annually, or when the military servicemember's spouse situation changes.

Member of an Indian Nation, Tribe or Pueblo

The income of Indians who worked or lived on lands outside the Indian nation, tribe or pueblo of which they are members is subject to New Mexico personal income tax.

Enrolled members of an Indian nation, tribe or pueblo who lived on the lands of the Indian nation, tribe or pueblo where they are members and whose entire income was earned from work on those lands do not need to file a New Mexico income tax return. The income of a spouse or dependent of an "Enrolled member" is also exempt, provided the spouse or dependent lives and works within the boundaries of the member's nation, tribe or pueblo.

Lands include formal and informal reservations, dependent Indian communities, and Indian allotments, whether restricted or held in trust by the United States.

Military pay of an enrolled member of an Indian nation, tribe or pueblo is exempt when the servicemember's home of record is on the lands of that Indian nation, tribe or pueblo and the legal residence for state withholding tax purposes has not been changed.

Retirement or pension income is exempt only when the enrolled member lives within the boundaries of the member's nation, tribe or pueblo, and the retirement or pension is the result of employment on the member's Indian nation, tribe or pueblo. Retirement or pension income from employment off the lands of the nation, tribe or pueblo may not be exempted.

Resident, Part-Year Resident, First-Year Resident and Non-resident Defined

For most taxpayers, your resident status for income tax purposes depends on where you were domiciled during the tax year and whether you were physically present in New Mexico for a total of 185 days or more during the tax year.

Domicile

Your domicile is the place you intend as your permanent home. It is the state where your permanent home is located and where you intend to return whenever you are away (as on vacation, business assignment, educational leave or military assignment). You can have only one domicile. Your New Mexico domicile is not changed until you can show that you have abandoned it and established a new domicile outside the state of New Mexico.

A change of domicile must be clear and convincing. Easily controlled factors are NOT the primary factors to consider in deciding where you are domiciled. If you move to a new location but intend to stay there only for a limited amount of time (no matter how long), your domicile does not change. If your domicile is New Mexico and you go to a foreign country for a business or work assignment, or for study, research or any other purpose, your domicile does not change unless you show that you definitely do not intend to return to New Mexico.

Physical Presence

To determine whether you were physically present in New Mexico for a total of 185 days, count each day that you were here for 24 hours. For example, a person who resides in Texas but works in New Mexico was physically present in New Mexico for 185 partial days during the tax year. Because he was not here for 24 hours for any day, he is not a resident for New Mexico income tax purposes. NOTE: The 185 days do not have to be consecutive.

Resident

For purposes of the Income Tax Act, you are a New Mexico resident if your domicile was in New Mexico for the entire year, or if you were physically present in this state for a total of 185 days or more during the tax year, regardless of your domicile.

Residents include persons temporarily residing in New Mexico who plan to return to their out-of-state residence and who are physically present in New Mexico for 185 days or more. Included are students, persons vacationing in New Mexico, and those temporarily assigned to work in New Mexico. Military personnel temporarily assigned to New Mexico who have established legal residence for purposes of income tax withholding outside New Mexico are not New Mexico residents. Spouses who accompany military personnel to New Mexico and do not qualify under the Military Spouses Residency Relief Act, must report as residents of New Mexico, regardless of domicile, if they are physically present in New Mexico for 185 days or more.

First-year resident

You are a first-year resident if you moved to New Mexico during the tax year with the intent of making New Mexico your permanent place of residence. A first-year resident need not have been physically present in New Mexico for at least 185 days. A former New Mexico resident who returns to the state may file as a first-year resident if that person has been a non-resident for at least one full tax year.

Part-year resident

A New Mexico part-year resident is a person who was a New Mexico resident for part of the year and was not physically present in New Mexico for 185 days or more, but, on December 31, was no longer domiciled in New Mexico and had moved to another state, intending to maintain domicile status in that other state.

Part-year residents and first-year residents who change domicile during the year are not residents of New Mexico for income tax purposes for periods when the taxpayer's domicile is outside New Mexico. For example: If you moved to New Mexico during the tax year, intending to make New Mexico your permanent place of residence, your income is taxed as non-resident for the period before your move to New Mexico. Additionally, if you were a New Mexico resident for fewer than 185 days during the tax year, and prior to December 31 you moved to another state, intending to maintain domicile status in that other state, your income is non-resident income for periods after your change of abode.

Non-resident

You are a New Mexico non-resident if you were not domiciled in New Mexico for any part of the tax year and you were not physically present in New Mexico for at least 185 days. Military personnel and qualifying servicemember's spouses who are temporarily assigned to New Mexico, but who have established residence in another state, should claim non-resident filing status.

NOTE: Except for certain military personnel, certain military spouses and first-year residents, you must indicate “R” in the Residency Status box 1e on page 1 of Form PIT-1 if you were physically present in New Mexico for more than 185 days during the tax year. For income tax purposes you are a resident of New Mexico.

Taxpayers Domiciled in Another State and Filing Form PIT-1 as Residents of New Mexico. If you are required to file a New Mexico personal income tax return as a New Mexico resident, but you are also required to file and pay tax to another state because your domicile is in another state, complete Schedule PIT-B to allocate and apportion your income to New Mexico. Then, claim a credit for taxes paid to another state on Form PIT-1, line 20, for income taxed by both states.

Refunds, Rebates and Credits

Even if you do not have to file a return, you should file for a refund if New Mexico income tax was withheld. You also may qualify for one or more credits or rebates offered by New Mexico. Attach Schedule PIT-RC if you are eligible to claim the low income comprehensive tax rebate, the property tax rebate for persons 65 years of age or older, an additional low income property tax rebate for Los Alamos or Santa Fe County residents, or New Mexico child day care credit. The general qualifications for an individual claiming these credits or rebates are:

- you were a resident of New Mexico during the tax year, and
- you were physically present in New Mexico for at least six months during the tax year, and
- you were not eligible to be claimed as a dependent of another taxpayer for the tax year, and
- you were not an inmate of a public institution for more than six months of the tax year.

You may also use Schedule PIT-RC if you are eligible to claim:

- refundable medical care credit for

- persons 65 or older,
- special needs adopted child tax credit;
- renewable energy production tax credit, or
- a refund of approved film production tax credit.

There are other eligibility requirements for the various refundable rebates and credits. For details see the specific line item in the Schedule PIT-RC instructions.

Royalty Income of Non-residents

Non-resident taxpayers who elect to compute tax on gross royalty income under $5,000 in lieu of filing a complete Form PIT-1 and Schedule PIT-B must mark the box on line 18a, Form PIT-1, with a “Y”, instead of an “R” for computing tax using the rate table, or “B” for computing tax using Schedule PIT-B. The indicator lets the Department know that you have gross royalty income from New Mexico sources of less than $5,000, that you do not have any other income sourced to New Mexico and that you have elected to compute New Mexico income tax due based on the gross royalty income received.

To complete Form PIT-1 using this election, complete lines 1 through 8, 17, 18, 22, 23 and 26 through 41. Lines 9 through 16a must be left blank. Enter your total gross royalty income from New Mexico sources on line 17 and follow the instructions for lines 18, 22, 23 and 26 through 41. You cannot reduce your income by the standard deduction or exemption amounts or any credits when you compute your tax in this way.

Representatives of Deceased Taxpayers

If a taxpayer dies before filing a return for 2012, the taxpayer’s spouse or personal representative may have to file and sign a return for that taxpayer. Do not enter the deceased taxpayer’s name if that person is not required to be entered on the federal or New Mexico return. A personal representative can be an executor, administrator or anyone in charge of the deceased taxpayer’s property. If a taxpayer did not have to file a federal return, but New Mexico income tax was withheld, the representative must file a New Mexico return to claim a refund. File a joint New Mexico return if a joint federal income tax return was filed for the deceased taxpayer and the surviving spouse. The filing date is the same as if the taxpayer had lived.

The person filing the return for the deceased should enter the month, day and year of death on line 1f or 2f on page 1, Form PIT-1. Enter the claimant’s name and social security number on lines 4a and 4b ONLY if the refund check must be made payable to someone other than the surviving spouse or to the estate of the taxpayer.

If the return shows an overpayment, and you are a court-appointed or certified personal representative requiring the refund to be made payable to you, enter the claimant’s name and social security number. Attach Form RPD-41083, Affidavit to Obtain Refund of New Mexico Tax Due a Deceased Taxpayer, to the taxpayer’s refund claim. Include a copy of the death certificate or other proof of death.

Pass-Through Entities and S Corporations

Partnerships and other pass-through non-corporate entities, including limited liability partnerships (LLP) and limited liability investment companies (LLIC) are not subject to New Mexico personal income tax, but individual members of the partnership or company are. If the entity has any partner or owner who is a New Mexico resident, or if the entity has any income from New Mexico sources, it must provide each partner or owner with the information necessary to file a New Mexico personal income tax return.

Beginning January 1, 2012, annual withholding* from owners, members or partners (owners) of a pass-through entity (PTE) is required. PTEs are required to withhold from the owner’s share of PTE’s allocable net income earned in the year at the rate of 4.9%. Certain exceptions to the requirement to withhold are allowed, and documentation must be maintained in the PTE’s records to establish that the PTE had reasonable cause for not withholding. A complete list of exceptions is provided in the instructions for Form RPD-41367. The withholding is reported on Form RPD-41367, Annual Withholding of Net Income From a Pass-Through Entity Detail Report.

*For tax year 2011 only, PTEs were required to withhold quarterly from the owner's share of PTE's net income earned.

A PTE must also file the annual Form PTE. An S corporation must file Form S-Corp. See the instructions for those forms for complete details.

Estates and Trusts

Estates and trusts are subject to the New Mexico personal income tax. The fiduciary for an estate or trust files Form FID-1, Fiduciary Income Tax Return. See the instructions for Form FID-1 for more details. Each beneficiary of an estate or trust includes his or her share of the estate or trust income on the New Mexico personal income tax return even if the estate or trust itself was not required to file Form FID-1.

Community Property and Division of Income

New Mexico is a community property state, and all assets and liabilities acquired during a marriage are the community property of both spouses, unless the property is separate property. Debt established during a marriage is the liability of both spouses, even after the marriage is dissolved. Debt established before or after a marriage is considered separate debt, and only 50% of community property may be pursued to clear separate debt.

When a couple files Married Filing Separately, each spouse reports 50% of community income and all income generated from the separate property of the spouse who owns the property. A spouse may not have to report half of certain combined community income (e.g., wages, salaries, professional fees, pay for professional services, partnership income, trade or business income and Social Security benefits) if all of the following conditions exist:

- You and your spouse lived apart all year;
- You and your spouse did not file a joint return;
- You and your spouse had wages, salaries, and professional fees that are community income; and
- You and your spouse did not transfer, directly or indirectly, any of the wages, salaries or professional fees between you during any part of the year.

Report half the total of all other types of community income (dividends, rents, royalties or gains) if you meet all of the above criteria. See FYI 310, Community Property, Divorce, Separation and Your New Mexico Income Tax, for further details.

Married Filing Separately

For married persons filing separate, persons separated or divorced during the year, or married persons filing joint, claiming the exemption for income of persons 100 years or older, both your New Mexico and federal returns MUST reflect a correct division of community and separate income and payments. If your income and payments are not evenly distributed, attach a copy of a statement reflecting a correct division of community and separate income and payments.

See also the instructions for Schedule PIT-B for allocation and apportionment rules for the community property, when one spouse is a resident (but not both spouses), the couple is filing a joint return, and they have income from sources both in and out of New Mexico.

Innocent or Injured Spouse Relief, Separation of Liability and Equitable Relief

If you believe a joint federal tax liability should be paid solely by your spouse due to an understatement of tax, divorce or separation, you may be able to claim Innocent Spouse Relief, Separation of Liability or Equitable Relief from the Internal Revenue Service. If you file a joint tax return and all or part of your portion of the overpayment (community property) was or is expected to be applied (offset) to your spouse's legally enforceable past-due liability, you may be able to claim Injured Spouse Relief from the Internal Revenue Service. Please refer to IRS Publications 971, Innocent Spouse Relief and Publication 504, Divorced or Separated Individuals.

Although state law prohibits the Department from forgiving state taxes due, the Department Secretary has the discretion to decline to bring collection action against an "innocent or injured spouse" when it is unfair to hold that spouse liable. When relief is granted in writing by the IRS, the spouse receiving the relief may provide the documentation of the relief to the Department and request the Department decline to bring or to cease collection action against them to the extent they are granted relief by the IRS.

Additionally, you may request from the Secretary that collection action not be brought against you for:

- liabilities established by your spouse when the income that established the liability was not claimed as community property;
- your portion of community property that is expected to be offset to clear the spouse's separate debt, or
- business related debt, when you can show that you had no knowledge of the business, did not benefit from the business and that the income from the business was not claimed as community property.

To request relief from the Department, submit a written request to New Mexico Taxation and Revenue Department, P.O. Box 630, Santa Fe, NM 87504-0630, or to your local district office. The addresses of the district offices are behind the front cover of the personal income tax form packet. Do not attach the request for relief with your New Mexico Personal Income Tax Return. You must provide proof that you qualify for relief.

FILING METHODS

New Mexico offers taxpayers the choice of filing their tax returns in the traditional paper format or using computers to file electronic returns. We describe the options below to assist you in choosing the method that makes filing your New Mexico PIT return most convenient for you.

The Department encourages all taxpayers to file electronically whenever possible. Electronic filing is fast and secure. It provides the fastest turnaround for a refund and saves tax dollars, costing less to process than a paper return. Taxpayers who file and pay electronically receive an extension of the filing deadline to April 30, 2013. The filing deadline is April 15, 2013 for all other taxpayers. See WHEN AND WHERE TO FILE AND PAY on page 11 for details.

Filing by Paper Form

1) TRD provides hardcopy New Mexico tax forms to fill out by hand and mail back to the Department. You can ask for them at TRD local district offices listed inside the front cover. Some local libraries also may carry supplies of New Mexico tax forms. You may also order forms from the Department by calling (505) 827-2206.

2) You may download tax forms using Adobe Acrobat from TRD's Internet web site, where you will find personal income tax forms you can print and mail to TRD. TRD's web address is: www.tax.newmexico.gov. Select the link for "Personal Tax Forms".

3) You can buy software to complete your income tax return on your personal computer (PC). You can then electronically file or print and mail the tax return to TRD.

Caution: Submit only high-quality, printed, original forms to the Department. A poor print or photocopy of a form obtained from our web site or an approved software product will delay the processing of your return and your refund, credit or rebate.

File Returns on Approved State

Forms. Always submit personal income tax returns on official state forms provided or approved by the Department. If you use a software product to generate your forms, the Department must first have approved the software company.

Computer Generated Returns. The New Mexico Taxation and Revenue Department approves companies who follow specifications and format requirements for the printed form. Acceptance of the software company does not imply endorsement by the Department or assurance of the quality of services provided. See "Approved Software Developers for the Reproduction of 2012 New Mexico Tax Forms" on the TRD web site or call (505) 827-2481.

When using any computer generated personal income tax form, you must comply with the printing and legibility requirements of the software developer. Hint: If your printer can print a logo clearly, then it can print a quality tax form.

Reminder: Never submit a photocopy of the form the software generates. Always submit the original computer-generated form and retain a copy for your records.

Filing Electronically

TRD offers two ways to file your PIT return electronically, both allowing you to file either a refund return or a tax-due return. File electronic returns through TRD's Internet web site or the Federal/State Electronic Filing Program.

Certain restrictions on who may file and the types of returns eligible for electronic filing may apply depending upon the electronic filing software used. The TRD and IRS web sites listed in the following sections contain information about the personal income tax electronic filing options. There are Internet browser requirements for filing over the Internet. Details of these requirements are available at the TRD and IRS web sites.

If you plan to have a professional tax preparer file your return electronically, you may contact him or her for more information about electronically filing.

1) Using TRD's Internet Web Site

If you have access to the Internet from a personal computer (PC), free electronic filing is available on TRD's web site at <https://efile.state.nm.us>.

At the TRD home page click on "Online Services" and follow the links to New Mexico E-filing Services for personal income tax. For security purposes, you will be required to build an online profile and login to the Unified Login Service to access E-filing Services. Enter your tax return information. Our Internet site prompts you on how to send your return electronically. To file your return successfully, read and follow all instructions. You will be able to print a copy of your return information for your own records, but do not mail the confirmation return to TRD. You will receive a confirmation number as proof and verification that the Department has received and accepted your return. If you do not receive a confirmation number, you must try again.

If you are due a refund, you may choose to receive a check or have the refund deposited directly into your checking or savings account. TRD is not responsible for the misapplication of a direct deposit refund that is caused by the error, negligence or malfeasance on the part of the taxpayer.

If you owe tax, you may pay via our web site using a Visa, MasterCard, American Express, or Discover credit card or electronic check, or you may mail a check or money order to TRD with a PIT-PV Payment Voucher. Mail the PIT-PV to the New Mexico Taxation and Revenue Department, P.O. Box 8390, Santa Fe, NM 87504-8390. Make your check or money order payable to New Mexico Taxation and Revenue Department.

NOTE: There is a 2.49% convenience fee if you pay by credit card. The fee is calculated on the amount of the transaction. The fee reimburses the state for fees the credit card companies charge the State of New Mexico. There is no charge for an electronic check.

2) Using the Federal/State Electronic Filing Program (Fed/State)

The Fed/State program, administered by the IRS, permits you to file your federal and state tax returns together or separately through electronic transmission. You may choose to file a Fed/State return through an online home filing program on a personal computer or through a professional tax preparer.

Fed/State Online Home Filing Program.

This method of filing requires access to the Internet. You can reach companies offering Fed/State e-file services and tax preparation software through the Internet. You can also purchase over-the-counter software.

The IRS has partnership agreements with companies to encourage electronic filing. A list of companies providing tax preparation software and Fed/State e-file opportunities, including descriptions of their products, services, and cost, is available on the IRS web site. The IRS's e-file Provider Page lists companies participating in free Internet filing available to low income and other qualified individuals. For more information regarding the Fed/State e-file program participants, visit the IRS web site at www.irs.gov.

If you choose to use one of these services to e-file your state return, check that the software company supports New Mexico 2012 Personal Income Tax Electronic Filing, and that the New Mexico Taxation and Revenue Department has approved it. Visit the TRD web site for a list of "Approved Software Developers for the Reproduction of 2012 New Mexico Tax Forms".

The New Mexico Taxation and Revenue Department approves companies who follow specifications and format requirements for the transmission file. Acceptance of the software company does not imply endorsement by the Department or assurance of the quality of its services. TRD does not review or approve the logic of specific software programs, nor does it confirm the calculations on the forms produced by these programs. The accuracy of the program remains the responsibility of the software developer, distributor or user.

Caution: When paying your taxes through the Fed/State program, you may make individual payments to both the IRS and to the State of New Mexico. Follow the correct instructions for making payment to the proper taxing authority. Do not combine payments to the IRS and to the State of New Mexico. You may also pay tax separately to New Mexico over the Internet, through the TRD web site, or by submitting a check with a Form PIT-PV.

NOTE: The Fed/State program payment processing does not support payments from savings accounts.

Fed/State Electronic Filing by a Professional Tax Preparer. Fed/State electronic filing service is also available through tax professionals who meet IRS and TRD qualifications for acceptance into the Fed/State program. Ask your professional tax preparer whether he or she has Fed/State approval. Professional preparers usually charge for their services.

Payment Vouchers

NOTE: TRD supports the fast and secure filing of electronic payments for PIT-PV, PIT-EXT and PIT-ES. Visit our website at <https://efile.state.nm.us>.

PIT-PV Personal Income Tax Payment Voucher. If your return shows a balance due and you choose to pay by mail or delivery to one of our local offices, you will need to complete Form PIT-PV and include it with your check or money order. Also include Form PIT-PV when submitting your payment with your return. Write your social security number, "PIT-PV" and the tax year on all checks and money orders.

PIT-EXT Personal Income Tax Extension Payment Voucher. If you expect your return to show a balance due and you have obtained either a federal automatic extension or a New Mexico extension, use Form PIT-EXT to make an extension payment by mail or delivery. By obtaining an extension of time to file your return, penalty for failure to file and pay is waived through the extension period, provided you file the return and pay the tax shown on the return by the extended due date. However, interest continues to accrue even if the taxpayer obtains the extension. If you expect to owe more tax when you file your 2012 return, make a payment using the 2012 PIT-EXT payment voucher and avoid the accrual of interest.

PIT-ES Estimated Personal Income Tax Payment Voucher. To make estimated tax payments by mail or delivery, you will need to complete Form PIT-ES. Include it with your check or money order. Please DO NOT combine payments for tax due on your 2012 return and payments of your 2013 estimated income tax liability on the same check or money order. If you combine payments, it is likely they will not be credited to your account in the way you would wish.

Please ensure you are using the correct form (PIT-PV, PIT-EXT or PIT-ES) and that the form indicates the correct tax year of the return to which you wish the payment to be applied. For example: When filing the fourth quarter estimated tax payment for tax year 2012, which is due January 15, 2013, ensure the tax year indicates 2012 on the PIT-ES payment voucher.

Amended Returns

Any change to New Mexico taxable income, credits or rebates, and changes to federal taxable income require an amended New Mexico personal income tax return for the same year. For tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2012, but not after December 31, 2012, an amended return must be filed on Form 2012 PIT-X. If the New Mexico amended return reports changes as the result of filing an amended federal return, attach copies of the applicable federal forms and schedules. In all cases, indicate the reason for amending the return on page 2, Form PIT-X. NOTE: The law requires an amended New Mexico return to be filed within 90 days of the date an adjustment to your federal return becomes final.

For tax years beginning on a date after January 1, 2005 but before December 31, 2010, an amended return must be filed on the Form PIT-X that is specific to the tax year of your original return. For tax years beginning prior to January 1, 2005, file amended returns using the form for the appropriate tax year and mark the "amended" check box or write "amended" at the top of the form if no checkbox is present on the form. For tax years prior to 2005, do not file an amended return on Form PIT-X even if the instructions for the tax year indicate the PIT-X should be filed. The Department cannot accept a return filed on Form PIT-X for a year that begins prior to January 1, 2005.

When completing an amended return, ALL Schedules PIT-ADJ, PIT-RC, PIT-B, PIT-CR, PIT-D and PIT-S required to be submitted to support the entries on Form PIT-X, must be attached, even if they did not change from the original version. Please follow the instructions carefully. You do not need to file forms W-2 and similar information forms unless you are amending your New Mexico return to change the amount of withholding reported.

When and Where to Pay

Making Payment Through the Internet. Using the Department web site, you may pay by electronic check at no charge. Your electronic check authorizes the Taxation and Revenue Department to debit your checking account in the amount and on the date you specify. Directions are available on the web site. File and pay tax due online using the Department's web site at <https://efile.state.nm.us>.

You may also make tax payments via credit card. A convenience fee of 2.49% is required to use this service. The fee is charged to reimburse the Department for charges paid to the credit card company.

Making Payment by Check. Whether you submit your return payment with or without your tax return, complete PIT-PV, Personal Income Tax Payment Voucher. Write your social security number and "2012 PIT-1" on your check or money order. Make the check or money order payable to New Mexico Taxation and Revenue Department.

If making an extension payment, complete PIT-EXT, Personal Income Tax Extension Payment Voucher. Write your social security number and "2012 PIT-EXT" on the check or money order.

If you make an estimated payment, complete PIT-ES, Estimated Personal Income Tax Payment Voucher. Write your social security number and "PIT-ES" on the check or money order. Important: The PIT-ES and the check or money order must indicate the correct tax year that the estimated payment should be applied to.

The Department receives a large amount of payment vouchers WITH-OUT the check or money order. Please ensure that you submit the payment voucher only when a payment is included.

SUBMIT ONLY HIGH-QUALITY PRINTED, ORIGINAL FORMS TO THE DEPARTMENT. Payment vouchers are processed through high-speed scanners and a quality form ensures your payment is processed accurately. Please follow these instructions for preparing the payment voucher. Do not cut the bottom portion of the payment voucher except where indicated--cut on the dotted line only. Do not photocopy. When printing the voucher from the Internet or a software product, the printer setting "Page Scaling" should be set to 'none' to prevent resizing. If your payment voucher has a scanline, do not write in the area around the scanline, which is located within the bottom 1-1/2 inch of the voucher.

Separate Payments of Tax Due and Estimated Payments. DO NOT combine payments for tax due on your 2012 return and payments for your 2013 estimated income tax liability on the same check or money order. If you combine payments, it is likely they will not be credited to your account in the way you would wish.

Mailing Address for Payments. When mailing a payment with a return, follow the instructions for mailing returns in the previous section. If mailing a payment separately, mail the payment and Form PIT-PV, Personal Income Tax Payment Voucher, PIT-EXT, Personal Income Tax Extension Payment Voucher, or PIT-ES, Estimated Personal Income Tax Payment Voucher, to the address below:

Mail PIT-PV, PIT-EXT or PIT-ES vouchers and payments to:

Extension of Time to File

New Mexico recognizes and accepts an Internal Revenue Service automatic extension of time to file. If you have obtained the federal six-month automatic extension by filing Form 4868, Application for Automatic Extension of Time to File U.S. Individual Income Tax Return for tax year 2012, you have six months (through October 15th) to file your New Mexico return. Beyond the six months, you are required to obtain an additional extension through the IRS or the state.

If you expect to file your federal return by the original due date or by the six month automatic extension of time to file allowed by the IRS, but need additional time to file your New Mexico return, ask for an extension of time by filing New Mexico Form RPD-41096, Extension of Time to File. File Form RPD-41096 on or before the April 15, 2013 due date. You do not need to attach an approved state extension to your return.

Special instructions and backup are required if you are granted a federal extension or state extension for military personnel deployed in a combat zone. See Publication FYI-311, Military Extensions for New Mexico Personal Income Tax, for details.

If you qualify for a special federal extension, you should refer to the Department web site to determine whether New Mexico offers a similar extension and how you may take the extension.

In all cases, mark the extension check box on line 6 of Form PIT-1, and enter the date the extension expires.

To make an extension payment by mail or delivery, you will need to complete Form PIT-EXT, Extension Payment Voucher.

An extension of time to file your return does NOT extend the time to pay. If tax is due, interest continues to accrue. Therefore, if you expect to owe more tax when you file your return, the best policy is to make a payment using Form PIT-EXT payment voucher and avoid the accrual of interest on that amount.

Please make sure you put the correct tax year on both the PIT-EXT,

Personal Income Tax Extension Payment Voucher and your check or money order. This minimizes the chance that your payment will be credited to the incorrect tax period. Report the amount of any payment(s) made towards the tax due when an extension has been filed, on line 30 of Form PIT-1 when the return is actually filed.

PENALTIES AND INTEREST

Interest:

Interest accrues on income tax that is not paid on or before the due date of your return even if you receive an extension of time to file. Interest is a charge for the use of money and by law cannot be waived. Prior to January 1, 2008, interest was calculated at the statutory rate of 15% per year, computed on a daily basis. Beginning January 1, 2008, interest is computed on a daily basis, at the rate established for individual income tax purposes by the U.S. Internal Revenue Code (IRC).

The IRC rate changes quarterly. The IRC rate for each quarter is announced by the Internal Revenue Service in the last month of the previous quarter. The annual rate for the last two years ranged between 3% and 4%. The annual and daily interest rates for each quarter are posted on our web site.

Important: You do not need to figure the amount of penalty or interest due on your return. Once your principal tax liability is paid, penalty and interest stops accruing. The Department will bill you for any penalty or interest due.

If you are due a refund, you may be entitled to interest on your overpayment at the same rate charged for underpayments, but only under certain conditions. For 2012 personal income tax returns, the Department shall pay no interest if the refund is made within 55 days of the date of the claim for refund, if the interest is less than $1.00, or if your return cannot be processed. For returns filed for years prior to the 2012 tax year, the Department shall pay no interest if the refund is made within 120 days of the date of the claim for refund, if the interest is less than $1.00, or if your return cannot be processed. For processing to take place, your return must show your name, social security number, and must be signed. It must comply with all the instructions for the return and contain all attachments required by those instructions.

Negligence Penalty for Late Filing or Late Payment. If you file late and owe tax, or if you do not pay your tax when due, you will receive a penalty of 2% of the tax due for each month or part of a month the return is not filed or the tax is not paid, to a maximum of 20%. NOTE: Prior to January 1, 2008, penalty could not exceed 10%. Penalty on any principal tax outstanding after January 1, 2008 will continue to accrue at a rate of 2% per month or part of a month the return is not filed or the tax is not paid, to the new maximum of 20%.

This penalty applies when your failure to file or pay is because of negligence or disregard of the rules and regulations but without intent to defraud.

Fraudulent Returns

Civil Penalties:

In the case of failure to pay when due any amount of required tax with willful intent to evade or defeat any tax, a civil penalty of 50% of the tax due will be charged. The minimum penalty is $25.

Any person who willfully causes or attempts to cause the evasion of another person's obligation to report and pay tax may be assessed a civil penalty in an amount equal to the amount of the tax, penalty and interest attempted to be evaded.

Criminal Penalties:

A person who willfully attempts to evade or defeat any tax or the payment of the tax is guilty of a felony and upon conviction may be fined between $1,000 and $10,000, or imprisoned between one to five years, or both, together with costs of prosecution. This penalty is in addition to other penalties provided by law.

Any person who willfully, with intent to evade or defeat the payment or collection of any tax:

- falsifies any return, statement or other document,
- willfully assists, procures, advises or counsels the filing of a false return, statement, or document,
- files any return electronically, knowing the information on the return is not true and correct as to every material matter, or
- removes, conceals or releases or aids in the removal, concealment or release of any property on which levy is authorized by the Department is guilty of a felony and subject to criminal penalties. Upon conviction, criminal penalty may be imposed of not more than $5,000 or imprisonment of not less than six months or more than three years, or both, together with costs of prosecution.

Penalty for Underpayment of Estimated Tax.

If your tax liability for 2012 is $1,000 or more ($500 or more for tax years ending before January 1, 2012), and your 2012 withholding does not equal the "Required Annual Payment" of (1) 100% of the prior-year tax liability, or (2) 90% of the current-year tax liability, you may be subject to penalty.

The law provides some exceptions to the penalty. For more information on exceptions, see instructions for Form PIT-ES.

The Department will calculate and assess penalty on underpayment of estimated tax if you have not timely made the required annual payments. You may provide additional information if you believe the penalty to be in error.

Penalty for underpayment of estimated tax accrues at the same rate as interest on an underpayment of tax. The penalty for underpayment of estimated tax may exceed the maximum 20% that applies to underpayment penalty. Beginning January 1, 2008, penalty on underpayment of estimated tax is computed on a daily basis, at the rate established for individual income tax purposes by the U.S. Internal Revenue Code (IRC). See Penalties and Interest on the previous page.

Returned Check Penalty. A check that is not paid by a financial institution does not constitute payment. A penalty of $20 will be assessed for a bad check in addition to other penalties that may apply to a late payment.

Failure of Paid Tax Preparers to Conform to Certain Requirements.

A penalty of $25 per return or claim for refund will be assessed a paid preparer who:

- fails to sign the tax return or claim for refund, or
- fails to include the identifying number of the paid preparer.

The law provides for a penalty of $500 per item against any tax return preparer who endorses or otherwise negotiates, either directly or through an agent, any refund check issued to a taxpayer.

Paid Tax Preparers Requirement to Ensure Returns are Filed Electronically. Paid tax practitioners who prepare more than twenty-five New Mexico personal income tax returns must ensure that each return is submitted by Department-approved electronic media, unless the taxpayer whose return is being prepared requests otherwise. A $5 penalty per return is assessed for personal income tax preparers who fail to comply with this requirement.

To avoid a penalty of $5 per return imposed on the paid tax return preparer, the tax preparer must ensure the return will be filed by Department-approved electronic media OR keep a signed Form RPD-41338, Taxpayer Waiver for Preparers Electronic Filing Requirement, on file and mark the checkbox in the "Paid Preparer's Use Only" section at the bottom of page 2 of Form PIT-1.

The requirement to ensure the return is filed by Department-approved electronic media applies only to 2012 New Mexico personal income tax returns filed in calendar year 2013. See the instructions for the "Paid Preparer's Use Only" section in these instructions for more details on this requirement.

YOUR RIGHTS UNDER THE TAX LAW

The Tax Administration Act governs how the Department administers the Income Tax Act and gives you specific rights and responsibilities.

Keep accurate tax records and stay current with changes in the tax law to help avoid tax problems. These instructions and other Department publications contain information that can help you do both.

While most tax problems can be resolved informally, it is important to understand that you must exercise certain rights provided to you under law within specific time frames. If an adjustment is made to your return, you will receive a notice explaining the adjustment with a description of procedures to use if you disagree.

At any time after filing your return, the return may be subject to further review, verification or correction. If your tax return is adjusted or there is an assessment of additional tax, you will receive a copy of publication FYI-406, Your Rights Under the Tax Laws. The publication outlines your rights and obligations and describes in detail how to dispute a Department action through either the Claim for Refund procedure or the Protest procedure. Read these procedures carefully to ensure you take the necessary steps to protect your rights.

Publication FYI-406 is on the Department's Internet home page at www.tax.newmexico.gov. Enter "FYI-406" into the search window at the top of the home page. It is also available by contacting Taxpayer Information by e-mail at policy.office@state.nm.us or calling (505) 827-0908.

NOTE: The taxpayer may protest the Department's failure to grant or deny a claim for refund. In the event the Department has not granted or denied a claim for refund within 120 days, you may protest, bring suit, or re-file your claim within three years from the end of the calendar year in which the tax was due or in which you paid a Department assessment.

If you do not hear from the Department within 120 days, you have 90 days in which to file a protest. You must act if you have not heard from TRD within 120 days. Sec. 7-1-26 NMSA 1978 stops the Department from approving or denying your claim when 210 days have passed and you have not filed a formal protest or suit in district court.

ABOUT YOUR TAX RETURN INFORMATION

KEEP COPIES OF YOUR TAX RECORDS AND RETURNS. Please remember to keep a copy of your completed income tax return for at least ten years after you file it. Keep copies of books, records, schedules, statements or other documents. The Department may ask you to provide copies of these records after you have filed your income tax return.

Privacy Notification

The New Mexico Taxation and Revenue Department requires taxpayers to furnish social security numbers as a means of taxpayer identification. All information supplied electronically by taxpayers is protected using encryption and fire walls. Taxpayer information on returns is protected in accordance with the confidentiality provisions of the Tax Administration Act (Section 7-1-8 NMSA 1978).

The rights of the Taxation and Revenue

Department and the Secretary of the Department to collect and maintain personal information, including mandatory disclosure of social security numbers in the manner required by tax regulations, instructions and forms, are in Section 7-1-12 NMSA 1978 and 3.1.1.15 NMAC.

The Taxation and Revenue Department uses this information primarily to determine and administer state tax liabilities. The Department also uses the information for certain tax-offset and exchange-of-tax information authorized by law, and for any other purpose authorized by law.

1099G and 1099INT Information Returns

Federal law requires New Mexico to report to the Internal Revenue Service all New Mexico income tax refunds and interest paid to taxpayers on those refunds. New Mexico is required to report the same information to you on a Form 1099.

The amount reported on Forms 1099G and 1099INT may or may not be federally taxable to you. Consult your tax preparer, the federal income tax form instructions, or IRS Publication 525, Taxable Income, to determine if you should report the amount as income for federal income tax purposes.

Federal/State Tax Agreement

Under authority of federal and New Mexico laws, the New Mexico Taxation and Revenue Department and the Internal Revenue Service are parties to a federal/state agreement for the mutual exchange of tax information.

Every year New Mexico participates in a program which matches New Mexico return information with federal return information. If you receive notice from the New Mexico Taxation and Revenue Department telling you of a difference between the state and federal information or a non-filed return, it is to your advantage to respond promptly and provide any information you have to clear your record of the difference. If you do not respond within 60 days, we will presume the notice to be correct. We will issue an assessment of tax due for the amount of underpaid tax plus penalty and interest.

Treasury Offset Program

If an assessment of New Mexico Personal Income Tax is established, the New Mexico Taxation and Revenue Department may submit your unpaid debt to the Treasury Offset Program. This "offset" is authorized by federal law and allows the U.S. Department of the Treasury to reduce or withhold any of your federal income tax refund by the amount of your debt.

Outside Collection Agencies

The Department is authorized to contract with outside collection agencies for collection of tax obligations that are at least 120 days past due. Contracted outside collection agencies are subject to the same privacy laws and requirements as the Department.

STEPS FOR PREPARING YOUR RETURN

Prepare your federal return first. Much of the information on your New Mexico return will be the same. Even if you are not required to file a federal return, complete a sample federal return before you prepare your New Mexico return.

Most New Mexico income tax laws are based on federal income tax laws. In these instructions we point out only the differences and explain those items unique to New Mexico law. No instructions are given for self-explanatory items; for example, when a line requires addition or subtraction.

NOTE: References to line numbers on federal forms are provided as a convenience. They are based on information available to the Department at the time we deliver New Mexico forms to the printing contractor. Use caution. The Department is not responsible for changes or errors in these references.

STEP 1
Get all forms and publications you need.

If you need forms or additional instructions, see Contacting the Department on page 13.

STEP 2
Get your tax records together.

Name and Social Security Number. Enter your name and social security number on all forms and correspondence you send to TRD. We cannot accept a return without a valid identification number. New Mexico requires that you use the same name and taxpayer identification number as required by the IRS.

Be sure that the name of the taxpayer, spouse and all dependents listed on the income tax return and their social security numbers agree with the individual's social security card. Contact the Social Security Administration if the name is not correct. The web site address is www.ssa.gov.

Resident or non-resident foreign nationals who do not have and are not eligible to obtain a social security number may obtain a federal individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN) by filing Form W-7 with the Internal Revenue Service. Use this ITIN instead of a social security number. Contact the Internal Revenue Service for forms and information on the ITIN program or visit the IRS web site at www.irs.gov. Place the ITIN everywhere the SSN is required.

NOTE: The IRS requires a nonresident alien spouse to have either an SSN or an ITIN, if:

- you file a joint return,
- you file a separate return and claim an exemption for your spouse, or
- your spouse is filing a separate return.

A dependent child who was born and died in 2012 is not required to have an SSN. If an SSN was not obtained, enter all "9"s in the Dependent's SSN column on line 8 and attach a copy of the child's birth certificate, death certificate, or hospital records. The document must show the child was born alive.

If you received a salary, wages or tips, gather all 2012 wage and tax statements. If you have not received your wage and tax statements by February 15 or if the form you receive is incorrect, contact your employer. If your employer withheld New Mexico taxes in error, we require a written explanation from your employer.

Reminder:
Write your correct social security number (SSN) on ALL forms, schedules, payments and correspondence.

If you received an annuity, pension, retirement pay, IRA distribution, distribution from a New Mexico-approved qualified state tuition program, Railroad Retirement or sick pay or social security benefits in 2012, whether or not income tax was withheld on the payments, gather all federal Form(s) 1099-R, RRB1099 and 1099-SSA.

If you did not have tax withheld but would like to in the future, contact the payor. See also Withholding on Certain Government Pensions, below for contact information.

If you had tax withheld from oil and gas proceeds from an oil or gas well located in New Mexico, obtain a copy of your federal Form 1099-MISC, or Form RPD-41285, Annual Statement of Withholding of Oil and Gas Proceeds.

If you had tax withheld by a Pass-Through Entity (PTE) from your share of the net income earned by a PTE, obtain a copy of federal Form 1099-MISC, or a copy of New Mexico Form RPD-41359, Annual Statement of Pass-Through Entity Withholding.

If you had gambling or lottery winnings, whether or not income tax was withheld on the winnings, you need your 2012 federal Form W-2G or a record of winnings not required to be reported on a Form W-2G. If your winnings were offset by losses reported in your itemized deductions on your federal return, you may be asked to provide documentation to substantiate the deduction.

If you received public assistance, from Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF) or a similar program, welfare benefits or Supplemental Security Income (SSI) during 2012, you will need records of the amounts.

If you received any other income in 2012, whether or not taxable, such as an insurance settlement, a scholarship or grant, VA benefits, income from an inheritance or trust, gifts of cash or marketable property, alimony, separate maintenance or child support, gather your records of the amounts.

To claim the Property Tax Rebate for persons age 65 or older, or the Low Income Property Tax Rebate for Los Alamos or Santa Fe County residents, you need records of the property tax billed for 2012 and/or the rent paid on your principal place of residence.

To claim the Child Day Care Credit you need a Caregiver's Statement, Form PIT-CG, from each person who provided child day care during 2012.

If you paid income taxes to another state on income that also will be taxable in New Mexico, you need a copy of that state's return. Both states must claim the same income source to be eligible for the credit.

If you made New Mexico estimated tax payments during the year, you need your records of the amounts and dates of payment. If you had an overpayment from your 2011 return applied to your 2012 estimated taxes, be sure to include that amount in your total.

If you are married and filing separate returns, if you were divorced during 2012, if you are claiming the exemption for income of persons 100 years or older, or if you or your spouse - but not both - is a resident of a community property state, and your income and payments are not evenly distributed, prepare and attach a statement reflecting a correct division of community and separate income and payments.

To claim a deduction, exemption or tax credit on Schedule PIT-ADJ, PIT-CR or Schedule PIT-RC, make sure you have the appropriate records, approvals, certifications, and forms. See the instructions for the line on the schedule, or Other Forms or Attachments You May Have to File, on page 8 of these instructions.

STEP 3 Fill in your return.

Fill in your return using the line instructions below. Continue with STEP 4 on page 30.

LINE INSTRUCTIONS FOR FORM PIT-1

Filling in your tax return.

Complete all required information on your form. Failure to complete all required information will delay processing your return and may cause your return to be incorrectly computed.

Please spend a moment reviewing the items below before making your entries:

- Round all amounts up or down to the nearest whole dollar. Do not enter cents. All money items on your return MUST be rounded to the nearest whole dollar. Do not enter cents. For example, enter $10.49 as $10 and $10.50 as $11;
- Please type or print using a blue or black pen -- no pencils;
- Write your numbers clearly and legibly. The forms contain boxes to guide you in making your handwritten entries. Clear, legible printing reduces errors and lets us process your return more efficiently;
- Do not use dollar signs ($), decimal points (.) or any punctuation marks or symbols other than the comma (,);
- For a loss reported on Form PIT-1, line 9, place a minus sign (-) immediately to the left of the loss amount. Do not use brackets or parentheses.

Example: If your federal adjusted gross income is negative $23,742.48, your money field entry for a loss on line 9 of your Form PIT-1 should look like this:

- 23,742	00
----------	----

Please leave blank all spaces and boxes that do not apply to you. Do not draw lines through or across areas you have left blank.

Complete the top of page 1 of the Form PIT-1.

Name and Address Box.

Make sure your name(s), address and social security number(s) are legible, complete and correct.

Enter names on a joint return in the same order as on the federal return. Taxpayers filing a joint return should enter their names and social security numbers in the same order each year to avoid processing delays.

Mark box 3a above the name-and-address block if you moved or changed your address since your last filing.

Report Changes of Address: If your mailing address has changed, check the box on your return, reflecting that the address on Form PIT-1 is new or has changed. If you move after filing your return and you expect a refund, you should notify both the post office serving your old address and the Department of your change of address. This will help in forwarding your refund or any other correspondence related to your tax return to your new address. To report a change of address by mail use Form RPD-41260, Change of Address Form. Your original signature is mandatory for a change of address.

Filing Period.

All information on your return except your mailing address should be for calendar year January 1, 2012 through December 31, 2012 or for your fiscal year. If you are filing for a fiscal year, enter the month, day and year your tax year began, and the month, day and year that it ended at the top of the first page. Your tax year must match the tax year of your federal return. Do not file short year returns unless allowed by the Internal Revenue Code.

LINES 1 through 4. Social Security Number(s), blind for federal income tax purposes, 65 years of age and older, Residency Status, and Deceased Taxpayer or Spouse Information

Enter your name, address and social security number and the name and social security number of your spouse in exactly the same order as on your federal return. Your spouse's name and social security number are necessary even if you are "married filing separately".

If you -- or your spouse -- do not have a social security number (SSN), but do have an individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN) assigned by the Internal Revenue Service, enter the ITIN everywhere the SSN is required. NOTE: The IRS requires a nonresident alien spouse to have either an SSN or an ITIN, if:

- you file a joint return,
- you file a separate return and claim an exemption for your spouse, or
- your spouse is filing a separate return.

You must provide your own and your spouse's social security number or individual taxpayer identification number, or your return is not complete and will not be processed.

Indicate if you or your spouse (if applicable) are blind for federal income tax purposes in boxes 1c and 2c, or 65 years of age or older in boxes 1d and 2d. The Department at some time may request proof that you or your spouse are blind for federal purposes. Please do not attach the proof to your return.

Residency:

- Resident. New Mexico full-year residents and individuals who were physically present in New Mexico for 185 days or more during the tax year, but not first-year residents, or certain military servicemembers and their qualifying spouses, must mark "R" in the residency status box.
- Non-resident. If you were physically present in New Mexico for fewer than 185 days and you were not domiciled in New Mexico during any part of the year, mark "N" in the residency status box.

New Mexico's law says every person who has income from New Mexico sources and who is required to file a federal income tax return must file a personal income tax return in New Mexico. This includes non-residents who have income from wages, rents, royalties, businesses, estates... every

New Mexico source. Even foreign nationals and persons who reside in states that do not have income taxes must file here when they have a federal filing requirement and have income from any New Mexico source whatsoever.

- First-year resident. If you moved into New Mexico during the tax year with the intent of establishing domicile in New Mexico, mark "F" in the residency status box. You are a first-year resident whether or not you were physically present in New Mexico for fewer than 185 days during the tax year.
- Part-year resident. If you were physically present in New Mexico for fewer than 185 days during the tax year, and you were domiciled in New Mexico during part of the tax year but not on the last day of the tax year, mark "P" in the residency status box.
- Military servicemembers and their qualifying spouse's temporarily assigned to New Mexico who have established residency outside New Mexico should enter "N".

See Resident, Part-Year Resident, First-Year Resident and Non-resident Defined on page 2 for more information.

Deceased Taxpayer or Spouse:

On lines 1f or 2f, enter the date of death if the taxpayer or the spouse named on the return died before the return is filed. Include the month, day and year of death. Enter the claimant's name and social security number on lines 4a and 4b only when the refund must be made payable to the order of a person other than the taxpayer or taxpayer's spouse. See Representatives of Deceased Taxpayers on page 3 for further details.

LINE 5. Exemptions

Enter the number of exemptions allowed on your federal return for yourself, your spouse if filing a joint return, and your qualifying dependents. New Mexico uses the same definitions and qualifications as the Internal Revenue Service to determine if someone is your dependent.

If you or your spouse were a dependent or qualify as a dependent of another individual for federal income tax purposes, whether or not you or your spouse were claimed as a dependent on the other person's federal return, exclude that spouse from your allowable exemptions.

For example:

- If neither you nor your spouse can be claimed as a dependent of another individual for federal income tax purposes, enter one exemption if filing married filing separate and two exemptions if married filing jointly.
- If someone can claim you or your spouse, if a joint return - but not both - on the federal return, enter one exemption.
- If filing joint and both you and your spouse qualify to be claimed as a dependent on another person's federal return, your allowable exemption is "00".

LINE 6. Extension of Time to File

Put an "X" in the extension indicator box on line 6 of Form PIT-1, and enter the date the extension expires. If you were granted a federal automatic six-month extension (through October 15th) or you have received approval for a New Mexico extension, it is not necessary to attach a copy of the federal Form 4868, Application for Automatic Extension of Time to File U.S. Individual Income Tax Return, or New Mexico Form RPD-41096, Extension of Time to File.

Special instructions and backup are required if you are granted a federal extension for a period of more than six months, or a New Mexico extension for military personnel deployed in a combat zone. See Extension of Time to File, on page 11 of these instructions for more information.

Reminder: An extension of time to file your return DOES NOT extend the time to pay.

LINE 7, BOXES 1 - 5. Filing Status

Show your filing status by marking an "X" in the box to the left of the filing status. Use the same filing status on your state return that you used on your federal return. If you did not file a federal return, use the filing status that you would have used for federal income tax purposes.

NOTE: New Mexico is a community property state. For married persons filing separately, divorced during 2012, or married persons filing joint, claiming the exemption for income of persons 100 years or older, or allocating and apportioning income in and outside New Mexico, both your New Mexico and federal returns MUST reflect a correct division of community and separate income and payments. If your income and payments are not evenly distributed, attach a copy of a statement reflecting a correct division of community and separate income and payments. Include your spouse's or former spouse's name and social security number on the statement. Attach the statement explaining the division of community income and payments to your Form PIT-1 even if you did not file a federal return. See Publication FYI-310, Community Property, Divorce, Separation and your New Mexico Income Tax, for more details.

If you put an "X" in box 3 of line 7, Filing Status, you must include your spouse's name and your spouse's social security number on lines 2a and 2b.

If you put an "X" in box 4 of line 7, Filing Status, you may need to also enter the name of the person who qualifies you as head of household if that person is a child and not eligible to be included as a qualified dependent exemption on line 8 under federal regulations.

LINE 8. Dependents

Enter the name, social security number and date of birth of each dependent reported on your federal return. If you have more than five qualifying dependents, enter the name, social security number and date of birth of the first five qualifying dependents on line 8 of 2012 Form PIT-1 and the remaining qualifying dependents on 2012 Schedule

PIT-S. Attach Schedule PIT-S to your 2012 Form PIT-1. To avoid processing delays, DO NOT use Schedule PIT-S if you have five or fewer qualifying dependent exemptions.

Do not file Schedule PIT-S unless the five dependent lines have been filled in on the PIT-1, line 8, and additional lines are needed for qualifying dependent exemptions exceeding five.

Enter only qualifying dependent exemptions allowed on your federal return. Do not include yourself or your spouse if filing a joint return. New Mexico uses the same definitions and qualifications as the Internal Revenue Service to determine if someone is a qualified dependent. See the instructions for Federal Form 1040, 1040A or 1040EZ to determine who you may claim as a dependent exemption.

You must list your dependent's correct SSN and be sure that the name agrees with the individual's social security card. If your dependent is not eligible to obtain an SSN, use the individual identification number required by the IRS. For details on how to apply, visit the IRS at www.irs.gov.

If your qualified dependent child was born and died in 2012 and an SSN was not obtained, enter all 9s in the Dependent's SSN column on line 8 and attach a copy of the child's birth certificate, death certificate, or hospital records. The document must show the child was born alive.

You must enter the dependent's date of birth following the format on the form. To indicate the dependent's date of birth, enter a two-digit month, two-digit day and four-digit year.

LINE 9. Federal Adjusted Gross Income

Enter the federal adjusted gross income as reported on your federal form:

If you filed Federal form:	Enter the amount from:
1040	Line 38
1040A	Line 22
1040EZ	Line 4

Royalty Income of Non-residents

Non-resident taxpayers who elect to compute tax on gross royalty income under $5,000 using special procedures instead of filing a complete Form PIT-1 and the Schedule PIT-B, please see also Royalty Income of Non-residents, on page 3 of these instructions for completing Form PIT-1. Skip lines 9 through 16a and enter a "Y" in the box on line 18a on Form PIT-1, instead of an "R" for computing tax using the rate table, or "B" for computing tax using Schedule PIT-B. Enter your total gross royalty income from New Mexico sources on line 17 and compute the tax by applying the gross royalty income to the tax rate tables. Then follow the instructions for lines 22, 23 and 26 through 41.

LINE 10. Itemized State and Local Tax Deduction

If you itemized your federal deduction amount, enter the amount of state and local tax deduction claimed on line 5, federal Form 1040, Schedule A.

A taxpayer who itemizes deductions on the 2012 federal income tax return is required to add back the amount of state and local tax deduction claimed on the federal return, but not below the standard deduction amount that you would have qualified for had you not itemized your deductions on the federal return. To determine the amount to be entered on line 10, complete the "Worksheet for Computing the Amount on Line 10, Form PIT-1" below.

LINE 11. Additions to Federal Adjusted Gross Income

See the instructions for lines 1 through 5 on the 2012 Schedule PIT-ADJ if you:

- received interest and dividends from federally tax-exempt bonds;
- have a net operating loss;
- have had contributions refunded when closing a New Mexico-approved Section 529 college savings plan account;
- have had certain contributions rolled out of a New Mexico-approved Section 529 college savings plan account, or
- had charitable deductions claimed on federal Form 1040, Schedule A, for a donation of land to private non-profit or public conservation agencies for conservation purposes from which you were allowed the New Mexico Land Conservation Tax Credit.

LINE 12. Federal Standard or Itemized Deduction Amount

Enter on PIT-1, line 12 your allowable federal itemized deductions from federal Form 1040 line 40, if you itemized your deductions on your 2012 federal Form 1040, mark checkbox 12a and complete line 10.

If you did not itemize your deductions, enter on Form PIT-1 line 12 the allowable federal standard deduction from federal Form 1040 line 40, or 1040A line 24.

Check box 12a only if you itemized your deductions on federal Form 1040, line 40.

If you claim a charitable deduction in your federal itemized deductions on federal Form 1040, Schedule A, for a donation of land to private non-profit or public conservation agencies for conservation purposes from which you were approved for the New Mexico Land Conservation Tax Credit, you must add back the charitable deduction amount included in your itemized deductions on your federal Form 1040, Schedule A. Add the charitable deduction amount on line 4, Schedule PIT-ADJ.

Filers of federal Form 1040EZ should enter the amount from Form 1040EZ, line 5. That amount includes both your standard deduction and your dependency exemption, so you will not have an entry on line 13 of New Mexico Form PIT-1. See line 13 below.

LINE 13. Federal Exemption Amount

Enter on line 13 the federal exemption amount allowed, from line 42 of the federal Form 1040, or the amount from line 26 of federal Form 1040A. If you filed federal Form 1040EZ, leave line 13 blank -- your deduction for personal exemptions is included in the amount on line 12.

LINE 14. New Mexico Low- and Middle- Income Tax Exemption

A New Mexico income tax exemption is allowed for individuals who are low- and middle-income taxpayers. All taxpayers, including residents, part-year residents, first-year residents, or non-residents may claim this exemption in full. The maximum is $2,500 for each qualified exemption for federal income tax purposes. The amount varies according to filing status and adjusted gross income. To claim the exemption, the amount on line 9, Form PIT-1 must be equal to or less than:

- $36,667, if single;
- $27,500, if married filing separate, or
- $55,000, if married filing joint, qualified widow(er), or head of household.

Use the worksheet on page 21 of these instructions to compute the New Mexico low- and middle-income tax exemption.

LINE 15. Deductions/Exemptions from Federal Adjusted Gross Income

See the instructions for lines 6 through 21 on 2012 SCHEDULE PIT-ADJ if:

- you have a New Mexico net operating loss carryover;
- you have interest income from U.S. government securities;

- you or your spouse -- or both -- are age 100 or over and you are not dependents of another taxpayer;
- you or your spouse -- or both -- are age 65 or over or blind and your adjusted gross income is not over $51,000 for a joint return, $28,500 for a single taxpayer, or $25,500 for married taxpayers filing separately;
- you have a New Mexico Medical Care Savings Account;
- you contribute to a New Mexico-approved Section 529 college savings plan;

gains, whichever is greater;

- you have military wages or salary from active duty service;
- you or your spouse -- or both -- are age 65 or over and you have unreimbursed or uncompensated medical care expenses of $28,000 or more for yourself, your spouse or dependents;
- you, your spouse or dependents have expenses related to donating human organs for transfer to another person;
- you received a reimbursement from the New Mexico National Guard Service Member's Life Insurance Reimbursement Fund, or
- you were required to include in your federal adjusted gross income taxable refunds, credits or offsets of state and local income tax (Form 1040, line 10).

LINE 16. Medical Care Expense Deduction

Any taxpayer who files a New Mexico PIT-1, Personal Income Tax Return, including out-of-state residents with income tax responsibility to New Mexico, may claim a deduction for medical care expenses paid during the tax year for medical care of the taxpayer, the taxpayer's spouse or a dependent. Use the worksheet on this page to determine your deduction amount that you enter on line 16, Form PIT-1.

Important: To claim the medical care expense deduction, both lines 16 and 16a must be completed or any medical care expense deduction will be denied.

When medical expenses are incurred for services provided by a medical doctor, osteopathic physician, dentist, podiatrist, chiropractic physician or psychologist, the person providing the service must be licensed or certified to practice in New Mexico or the medical expenses incurred cannot be included to compute the deduction for medical care expenses.

For purposes of the Medical Care expense deduction, you may claim only unreimbursed and uncomcompensated medical expenses NOT included in your itemized deduction amount on the federal Form 1040 return, Schedule A. Medical care expenses not included in the itemized deduction amount because they are part of the federal 7.5% of adjusted gross income floor amount, can be included here.

NOTE: If you or your spouse are 65 years of age or older and you paid unreimbursed and uncompensated medical care expenses over $28,000 during the current tax year, you may also be eligible to claim an exemption of $3,000 and tax credit of $2,800. See the instructions for line 17, Schedule PIT-ADJ and line 23, Schedule PIT-RC for details.

Reimbursed and compensated insurance premiums like those paid with pre-tax dollars under cafeteria and similar benefit plans are also ineligible. Some of the expenses you may include are:

1. Amounts paid as premiums under Part B of Title XVIII of the Social Security Act (Medicare);
2. Amounts paid for a qualified long-term care insurance contract defined in Section 7702B(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, and
3. Unreimbursed insurance premiums and co-payments not deducted for federal purposes. NOTE: Premiums paid with pre-tax dollars through payroll deductions are not eligible.

For purposes of this deduction:

- a. The diagnosis, cure, mitigation, treatment or prevention of disease, or care for the purpose of affecting any structure or function of the body, if provided by a physician or in a health care facility. Cosmetic surgery is not eligible;
- b. Prescribed drugs or insulin, and oxygen. A "prescribed drug" is a drug or biologically active substance for use in or on humans that requires a prescription or administration by a person licensed to do so. Costs for over-the-counter drugs are not eligible. Prescribed drugs for animals are not eligible;
- c. Qualified long-term care services as defined in Section 7702B (c) of the Internal Revenue Code;
- d. Insurance covering medical care, including amounts you paid as premiums under part B of Title XVIII of the Social Security Act (Medicare) or for a qualified long-term care insurance contract defined in Section 7702B (b) of the Internal Revenue Code, if the insurance or other amount is income for the tax year;

e. Nursing services, regardless of where the services are rendered, if provided by a practical nurse or a professional nurse licensed to practice in the state according to the Nursing Practice Act;

f. Specialized treatment or the use of special therapeutic devices if a physician prescribes the treatment or device, and the patient can show that the expense was incurred primarily for the prevention or alleviation of a physical or mental defect or illness. "Special therapeutic devices" include corrective eyeglasses, contact lenses and hearing aids prescribed by a physician. Expenses for guide dogs, however,

are excluded;

g. Care in an institution other than a hospital, such as a sanitarium or rest home, if the principal reason for the presence of the person in the institution is to receive the medical care available. If the meals and lodging are a necessary part of such care, the cost of the meals and lodging are "medical care expenses."

4. "Physician" means a medical doctor, osteopathic physician, dentist, podiatrist, chiropractic physician or psychologist licensed or certified to practice in New Mexico.

Physicians licensed or certified to practice in New Mexico are recognized. Also qualified are licensed practical nurses and registered professional nurses licensed in New Mexico. Costs of care provided by other health care professionals such as physical therapists, acupuncturists and others licensed by the New Mexico Department of Health are deductible only if the care was provided in their offices or at other qualified health care facilities.

Keep full documentation of all medical care expenses for which you claim a deduction on this line. Do not send the documentation with your tax return. Keep your receipts in case you are selected for audit or verification of deductions claimed.

Married couples filing separately may claim only those expenses personally incurred. They may not claim any expenses the spouse has already claimed or plans to claim.

Do not claim payments to a veterinarian or veterinary clinic or any other expenses for family pets or other animals.

You may claim the medical care expense deduction in an amount equal to the percentage of medical care expenses paid during the tax year based on the filing status and adjusted gross income. See the chart on page 22.

LINE 16a.
Unreimbursed and Uncompensated Medical Care Expenses

Enter the total of unreimbursed and uncompensated medical care expenses used to compute the medical care expense deduction claimed on line 16. To claim the medical care expense deduction, both lines 16 and 16a must be completed or any medical care expense deduction will be denied.

LINE 17.
New Mexico Taxable Income

Add lines 9, 10 and 11, then subtract the sum of lines 12, 13, 14, 15 and 16. Enter zero if negative. This is your New Mexico taxable income.

On line 18 you will calculate your New Mexico tax due based on the New Mexico taxable income amount on line 17.

LINE 18.
New Mexico Tax

Calculate your tax. Use either the rate tables beginning on page 1T or Schedule PIT-B. You must also complete line 18a. Complete Schedule PIT-B to calculate your tax if you have income from sources inside and outside New Mexico; otherwise, use the tax rate tables. When using the rate tables, please be very careful. MAKE SURE you use the taxable income amount on line 17.

If you qualify to file Schedule CC, then enter only the amount from line 3 of Schedule CC, Alternative Tax Schedule, on line 18. Schedule CC is to be used by taxpayers who:

- have no business activities in New Mexico other than sales,
- do not own or rent real estate in New Mexico, and
- have annual gross sales in or into New Mexico of $100,000 or less.

LINE 18a.
New Mexico Tax Computation Indicator

On line 18, mark the indicator box with an "R" if you used the rate tables, or "B" if you used the Schedule PIT-B to compute your tax. If you compute your tax using Schedule CC, enter "R".

Non-resident taxpayers who elect to compute tax on gross royalty income under $5,000 using special procedures instead of filing a complete Form PIT-1 and Schedule PIT-B, enter the gross royalty income from New Mexico sources on line 17, and enter a "Y" in box 18a of Form PIT-1, instead of entering an "R" or a "B". Compute the tax by applying the tax rate tables to the gross royalty income. Then follow the instructions for lines 22 and 23, and lines 26 through 41. Also see Royalty Income of Non-residents on page 3 of these instructions.

LINE 19.
Tax on Lump-Sum Distributions

If you received a lump-sum payment and are using the federal special ten-year tax option on federal Form 4972, use the worksheet on page 24 to compute your New Mexico averaged tax. You are not eligible to use the New Mexico averaging method if you did not use the federal averaging methods available. Enter the amount on line 8 of the worksheet on page 24 for computing tax on lump-sum distributions on line 19 of Form PIT-1.

If you file Schedule PIT-B because you have income sources in and outside New Mexico, allocate to New Mexico on line 3, Schedule PIT-B, the portion of the lump-sum distribution you received while a resident. If you are a full-year resident or a resident because you were physically present in New Mexico for 185 days or more, you must allocate to New Mexico the lump-sum distribution you received during the entire year. If you are a first-year resident or a part-year resident, allocate only the amount of lump-sum distribution you received while a resident of New Mexico.

NOTE: If you used Schedule PIT-B to calculate New Mexico tax liability on line 18 and also used the federal special tax option and New Mexico averaging methods to calculate tax on a lump-sum distribution on line 19, DO NOT add line 19 when completing line 22, Form PIT-1 as instructed. Instead subtract the sum of lines 20 and 21 from the amount entered on line 18. Skip line 19. Line 19, Form PIT-1 should not be added when completing line 22, Form PIT-1 because the New Mexico portion of line 19, lump sum distribution, is included in line 14, PIT-B.

LINE 20.
Credit for Taxes Paid to Another State

A resident of New Mexico who must pay tax to another state on income that is also taxable in New Mexico may take a credit against New Mexico tax for tax paid to the other state.

This credit is for tax that another state imposes on any portion of income that by law is included in New Mexico net income. Do not include tax withheld when calculating the allowable credit. If the specific item of income is not subject to taxation in both states, no credit is available. The credit may not be more than the New Mexico tax liability, the sum of lines 18 and 19, on Form PIT-1, or more than 5-1/2% of the income taxable in the other state. Also, the amount of the credit may not exceed the amount of tax paid to the other state. Attach a copy of the complete income tax return(s) from the other state(s). See the worksheet on page 25.

Income that is allocated or apportioned outside New Mexico on Schedule PIT-B does not qualify for credit for taxes paid to another state on that same income. If a Schedule PIT-B is filed, the income must be required to be allocated or apportioned to New Mexico and included in column 2 on Schedule PIT-B or a credit for tax paid to another state is not allowed.

For example: Rental income from property located outside of New Mexico is allocated outside New Mexico on Schedule PIT-B. Because that income is not included in column 2 on Schedule PIT-B, credit for tax paid to another state cannot be claimed.

Income tax you paid to any municipality, county, or other political subdivision of a state or to any central government of a foreign country does not count toward the credit.

“State” includes the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, any territory or possession of the United States, and states and provinces of foreign countries. “State” does not include their central governments.

NOTE: Effective for retirement income received after December 31, 1995, federal law prohibits any state from taxing certain retirement income (chiefly pension income) unless you are resident of, or domiciled in, that state. For example, you receive a pension from your former California employer. You now reside in New Mexico. California may not tax your retirement income. The retirement income is taxable in

New Mexico because you are a New Mexico resident.

Some taxpayers have permanent homes in other states, but they are physically present in New Mexico for at least 185 days during the tax year. They must file as residents of New Mexico. They allocate their income to New Mexico as a resident on the PIT-B allocation and apportionment schedule, but if they qualify, they also may take a credit for taxes paid to their home state on line 20, Form PIT-1.

LINE 21.
Non-refundable Credits

See the instructions for lines 1 through 20, Schedule PIT-CR, if you are eligible to claim one or more of the following non-refundable credits or you are claiming any film production tax credit against the tax due on your return:

- Cultural Property Preservation Credit;
- Business Facility Rehabilitation Credit;
- Rural Job Tax Credit;
- Technology Jobs Tax Credit;
- Electronic Card-Reading Equipment Tax Credit;
- Job Mentorship Tax Credit;
- Land Conservation Incentives Credit;
- Affordable Housing Tax Credit;
- Solar Market Development Tax Credit;
- Blended Biodiesel Fuel Tax Credit;
- Sustainable Building Tax Credit;
- Angel Investment Credit;

- Agricultural Water Conservation Tax Credit;
- Advanced Energy Tax Credit;
- Geothermal Ground-Coupled Heat Pump Tax Credit;
- Agricultural Biomass Tax Credit;
- Film Production Tax Credit (applied to tax due)
- Cancer Clinical Trial Tax Credit, or

You must attach Schedule PIT-CR and any required forms or documentation to support your claim.

7. Enter the lesser of line 6 and line 1. This is the credit allowed for tax paid the other state.7. _____

Enter the amount from line 7 of this worksheet (or the sum of line 7 amounts from worksheets completed for each state) on line 20 of the 2012 Form PIT-1.

LINE 22.
Net New Mexico Income Tax

Add lines 18 and 19, then subtract the sum of lines 20 and 21. This amount cannot be less than zero.

If you used Schedule PIT-B to calculate New Mexico tax liability on line 18 and also used the federal special tax option and New Mexico averaging methods to calculate tax on a lump-sum distribution on line 19, DO NOT add line 19 when completing line 22, Form PIT-1. Instead, subtract the sum of lines 20 and 21 from line 18. See the instructions for line 19 for more information.

LINE 24.
Rebates and Credits

Complete and attach Schedule PIT-RC if you claim any of the special New Mexico rebates or refundable credits. The PIT-RC, Rebate and Credit Schedule is a separate schedule used by Form PIT-1 filers to claim any of the following refundable credits:

- Low Income Comprehensive Tax Rebate;

- Property Tax Rebate (for low-income persons 65 or older);
- Additional Low Income Property Tax Rebate for Los Alamos or Santa Fe County residents;
- Child Day Care Credit;
- Refundable Medical Care Credit for Persons 65 Years of Age or Older;
- Special Needs Adopted Child Tax Credit;
- Renewable Energy Production Tax Credit, or
- Refundable portion of the Film Production Tax Credit.

LINES 25 and 25a.
Working Families Tax Credit

Enter the amount of Earned Income Credit (EIC) reported on your 2012 federal Form 1040, 1040A, or 1040EZ on line 25a, Form PIT-1. Multiply the amount on line 25a by 10% (.10) and enter the result on line 25. Round the result to the nearest dollar. Important: You must complete both lines 25 and 25a, or the credit will be denied.

An individual who was a New Mexico resident during any part of 2012 and who files a New Mexico personal income tax return may claim a credit in an amount equal to ten percent of the EIC for which that individual is eligible for the same tax year. An individual who qualified for the working families tax credit may receive a refund if the credit exceeds the income tax liability for the tax year of the claim.

The EIC is a refundable federal income tax credit for low income working individuals and families. The credit reduces the amount of federal tax you may owe and may increase your refund from the IRS. To see if you may claim the credit, read the rules in the federal 1040, 1040A or 1040EZ tax packages or see IRS Publication 596. You may also read about the EIC credit on the IRS web site at www.irs.gov and download the publication there.

LINE 26.
New Mexico Income Tax Withheld

Enter the total of all New Mexico income tax withheld as shown on your annual withholding statements, Form(s) W-2, W-2G, 1099, 1099-R, or 1099-MISC other than income from oil and gas proceeds. Include a copy of the forms with your PIT-1. Do not include income tax withheld from your share of the net income a pass-through entity or from oil and gas proceeds.

A payment that you made for gross receipts tax, withholding tax, compensating tax or any other type of tax due to the State of New Mexico, is not a payment towards your personal income tax liability. Do not include these payments as “tax withheld”, “estimated” or “other” payments on your personal income tax return.

LINE 27.
New Mexico Income Tax Withheld
From Oil and Gas Proceeds

Enter the total of all New Mexico income tax withheld from oil and gas proceeds as shown on your annual withholding statements, 1099-MISC and RPD-41285, Annual Statement of Withholding of Oil and Gas Proceeds. Be sure to include a copy of the forms with your PIT-1.

An entity that has had tax withheld cannot pass a withholding statement directly to another taxpayer. Generally, the recipient of the withholding statement must file and report the tax withheld on its New Mexico income tax return. However, if a person is a remittee that receives oil and gas proceeds from which tax was withheld, and the person is also a remitter who must pass the oil and gas proceeds and the tax withheld to another remittee, the person may do so by issuing an annual withholding statement, Form RPD-41285, Annual Statement of Withholding of Oil and Gas Proceeds, to the next remittee. The remittee may then claim the withholding on its income tax return.

LINE 28.
New Mexico Income Tax Withheld

From a Pass-Through Entity

Enter the total New Mexico income tax withheld from the net income of pass-through entities as shown on your annual withholding statements, 1099-MISC or Form RPD-41359, Annual Statement of Pass-Through Entity Withholding. Include a copy of the form(s) with your PIT-1.

An entity that has had tax withheld cannot pass a withholding statement directly to any other taxpayer. Generally the recipient of the withholding statement must file and report the tax withheld on its New Mexico income tax return. However, if a recipient is also a pass-through entity, tax withheld may be passed to the owner of the recipient by issuing the owner an annual withholding statement, Form RPD-41359, Annual Statement of Pass-Through Entity Withholding. The owner may then claim the withholding on his income tax return.

LINE 29.
2012 Estimated Income Tax Payments

Enter the total of New Mexico estimated tax payments made for 2012 as shown in your records. Include your last installment even if you pay it in 2013. Also be sure to include any 2011 overpayments you applied to 2012 estimated taxes. Important: Do not include any extension payments made with Form PIT-EXT or return payments made with Form PIT-PV. Report extension and return payments on line 30. Report only overpayments from prior year returns and estimated payments made with Form PIT-ES on line 29.

If any estimated payments were made using different name(s) or social security number(s), attach a schedule to your return showing how each estimated payment was made.

EXAMPLE: Prior to her marriage in August 2012, a taxpayer made two estimated tax payments in her name and social security number only. She made two additional estimated tax payments after the wedding, but they showed the name of the taxpayer and her new spouse and both social security numbers. The total of the estimated payments should be entered on line 29. Attach a schedule that shows the name(s) and social security number(s) reported with each payment.

IMPORTANT: A payment for gross receipts tax, withholding tax, compensating tax or any other type of tax due to the State of New Mexico, is not a payment towards your personal income tax liability. Do not include these payments as “tax withheld”, “estimated” or “other” payments on your personal income tax return.

LINE 30.
Other Payments

Enter the total payments made toward the 2012 personal income tax liability not included in line 29. Include return payments made using Form PIT-PV, and extension payments using Form PIT-EXT. Include payments made through the Department’s Internet web site using the PIT-PV or PIT-EXT option.

NOTE: Do not include in line 30, payments you attach to the return or payments submitted after the return was filed.

LINE 31.
Total Payments and Credits

Add lines 24 through 30. Enter the total here.

LINE 32.
Tax Due/Amount You Owe

If line 23 is greater than line 31, the dif-

A payment for gross receipts tax, withholding tax, compensating tax or any other type of tax due to the State of New Mexico, is not a payment towards your personal income tax liability. Do not include these payments as “tax withheld”, “estimated” or “other” payments on your personal income tax return.

ference is the amount of tax you owe. Enter the difference on line 32.

LINE 33.
Penalty on Underpayment of Estimated Tax

Enter the amount of penalty on underpayment of estimated tax that you owe. You may leave this line blank if you owe underpayment of estimated personal tax penalty and you wish the Department to compute the penalty for you. The Department will send you a bill or if a refund is due, will reduce your refund by the amount of the penalty due.

If you wish to compute your underpayment of estimated tax penalty, see the instructions for PIT-ES, Estimated Personal Income Tax Payment Voucher.

LINE 34.
Special Method Allowed for Calculation of Underpayment of Estimated Tax Penalty

If you owe penalty for underpayment of estimated personal income tax using the standard method of computing the penalty and you qualify for a special penalty calculation method, enter 1, 2, 3, 4 or 5 in the box on line 34 on Form PIT-1 to indicate the method you elect to use to calculate your underpayment penalty. Attach Form RPD-41272, 2012 Calculation of Estimated Personal Income Tax Underpayment Penalty, to Form PIT-1.

See Form RPD-41272, 2012 Calculation of Estimated Personal Income Tax Underpayment Penalty, or the instructions for PIT-ES, Estimated Income Tax Payment Voucher, for a description of the calculation methods and the meaning of the entries 1, 2, 3, 4 or 5.

Leave the box blank if you do not qualify for a special method of computing the underpayment of estimated tax penalty. Also leave the box blank if you do not owe estimated tax using the standard method of computing the underpayment of estimated tax penalty. Generally, taxpayers who pay penalty on underpayment of estimated tax do not need to mark the box on line 34 or file Form RPD-41272, 2012 Calculation tion of Estimated Personal Income Tax Underpayment Penalty. However, if you owe penalty for underpayment of estimated payments, you may be able to reduce or eliminate penalty if you qualify for a special penalty calculation method. You must mark line 34 to indicate the special method used.

You must attach Form RPD-41272 to your 2012 New Mexico Personal Income Tax Return to be allowed the special penalty calculation.

LINE 35.
Penalty

Add penalty if you file late and owe tax, or you do not pay the tax on or before the date the return is due. Calculate penalty by multiplying the unpaid amount on line 32 by 2%, then by the number of months or partial months for which the payment is late, not to exceed 20% of the tax due. You may leave this line blank if you wish the Department to compute the penalty for you. The Department will send you a bill. See Penalties and Interest in these instructions for more information.

LINE 36.
Interest

Add interest if you do not pay the income tax due on or before the original due date of your return even if you receive an extension of time to file. You may leave this line blank if you wish the Department to compute the interest for you. The Department will bill you for any penalty or interest due.

Important: Once your principal tax liability is paid, interest stops accruing. Therefore, you do not need to figure the amount of interest due on your return beyond the date the principal tax is paid.

Beginning January 1, 2008, interest is computed on a daily basis, at the rate established for individual income tax purposes by the U.S. Internal Revenue Code (IRC).

The IRC rate changes quarterly. The annual rate for the four quarters of the 2011 tax year ranged between 3% and 4%. The IRC rate for each quarter is announced by the Internal Revenue Service in the last month of the previous quarter. The annual and daily interest rate for each quarter will be posted on our web site at www.tax.newmexico.gov.

The formula for calculating daily interest is: Tax due x the daily interest rate for the quarter x number of days late = interest due.

LINES 38 through 41.
Overpayment/Refund

If line 23 is less than line 31, you have an overpayment. Enter the difference. If you have penalty or interest due from lines 33, 35 or 36, reduce the overpayment by the sum. If you do not wish to compute any penalty or interest due, enter the difference. The Department will reduce your overpayment by the amount of penalty and/or interest computed.

Your overpayment can be:

- used for voluntary fund contributions (enter on line 39) (see New Mexico Voluntary Contributions Schedule, PIT-D), or
- applied to your 2013 estimated tax (enter on line 40), or
- refunded to you (enter on line 41), or
- any combination of these.

An overpayment credited toward your 2013 estimated tax cannot be refunded until you have filed your 2013 tax return in 2014. The Department will not refund an amount of one dollar or less unless you attach to your return a signed statement asking for it.

Refund Express

If you request an amount to be refunded to you on line 41, you may have your tax refund deposited directly into your bank account through Refund Express. To choose Refund Express, complete the "Refund Express" portion on page 2 of Form PIT-1. All fields are required. Complete the bank routing number, the account number, and you must mark the appropriate box to indicate the type of account.

In order to comply with federal banking rules, you must indicate whether the refund will be going to or through an account outside the United States. If it is, you may not use this refund delivery option. You may use a different bank account or leave the Refund Express portion blank and a paper check will be mailed to the address on the return. If you answer the question incorrectly, your refund may be delayed, rejected or frozen by the National Automated Clearing House Association (NACHA) or the Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC).

Failure to complete all four fields properly will cause your Refund Express request to be denied, and the Department will mail you a paper check.

The Department will mail you a paper check if your bank does not accept your Refund Express information. Refund express is available for deposits to the taxpayer's account only. Taxpayers may not request the funds to be deposited into the account of another payee.

TRD is not responsible for the misapplication of a direct deposit refund that is caused by the error, negligence or malfeasance on the part of the taxpayer.

Why Use Refund Express?

- Avoid delays that may occur in mailing a check. Refund Express does not guarantee that you will receive your refund check earlier, however -- only that, when the check is issued, it will reach the bank more quickly.
- Payment is more secure. There is no check to get lost or stolen.

- More convenient. No trip to the bank to deposit your check.
- Saves tax dollars. A refund by direct deposit costs less than a check.
- Environmentally friendly. Refunds deposited directly into your account reduces the need for paper.

What is the Routing Number?

The routing number is for bank identification and must be nine digits. If the first two digits are not 01 through 12 or 21 through 32, the system will reject the direct deposit and you will receive a check. On the sample check on this page, the routing number is 211500151.

Your check may state that it is payable through a bank different from the financial institution where you have your checking account. If so, do not use the routing number on that check. Instead, contact your financial institution for the correct routing number to enter on this line.

Entering Your Account Number

Your account number can be up to 17 characters. Include hyphens, but omit spaces and special symbols. Enter the number from left to right. Leave unused boxes blank. On the sample check, the account number is 2015551517. Do not include the check number.

Indicate whether the account is a checking or savings account by entering an "X" in the appropriate box.

Caution: Some financial institutions will not allow a joint refund to be deposited into an individual account. The Taxation and Revenue Department is not responsible if a financial institution refuses a direct deposit.

Collection of Debts from Your Refund

The Department will keep all or part of your overpayment if you owe other taxes to the Department. We will apply that amount to the liability.

The law also requires the Department to transfer all or part of your overpayment if you owe money for past-due child support, educational assistance loans, unemployment compensation, medical support, public assistance or food stamp overpayments, fines, fees and costs owed to district, municipal, magistrate or metropolitan courts, or workers' compensation fees.

Any amount over your liability and debt will be refunded to you.

If you receive notification that all or part of your refund was transferred to one of these agencies and you wish to protest that action, contact that agency at the address listed below. If your refund was transferred to a claimant agency in error, that agency must correct the error and issue your refund.

Paying Your Tax Liability

Making Payment Through the Internet. Using the Department's web site, you may pay by electronic check at no charge. Your electronic check authorizes the Taxation and Revenue Department to debit your checking account in the amount and on the date you specify. File and pay tax due online using the Department's web site at www.tax.newmexico.gov/Online-Services/Pages/Home.aspx.

Using the Department's web site, you may also pay using Visa, MasterCard, American Express or Discover credit cards, however, a convenience fee of 2.49% will be applied to these charges. The fee is calculated on the amount of the transaction and will be used to pay charges by the credit card companies to the State of New Mexico when you use your credit card as a form of payment.

Making Payment by Mail. Complete the PIT-PV, Payment Voucher, if you owe one dollar or more. Include full payment with the voucher. Make your check or money order payable to New Mexico Taxation and Revenue Department. Please write your social security number and "2012 PIT-1" on your payment. DO NOT SEND CASH.

The Department receives a large amount of payment vouchers WITHOUT the check or money order. Please ensure you only submit a payment voucher if a payment is included.

SUBMIT ONLY HIGH-QUALITY PRINTED, ORIGINAL FORMS TO THE DEPARTMENT.

Payment vouchers are processed through high-speed scanners and a quality form ensures your payment is processed accurately. Please follow these instructions for preparing the payment voucher. Do not cut the bottom portion of the payment voucher except where indicated--cut on the dotted line only. Do not photocopy. When printing the voucher from the Internet or a software product, the printer setting "Page Scaling" should be set to 'none' to prevent resizing. If your payment voucher has a scanline, do not write in the area around the scanline, which is located within the bottom 1-1/2" of the voucher.

Please DO NOT combine payment for the amount due on your return with payment for any other tax or estimated payments for 2013. Your payments cannot be separated and credited as you would wish.

A $20 penalty will be assessed for any check that is not honored by the bank on which it is drawn. This penalty is in addition to any other late filing and late payment penalties that may be assessed.

Paid Preparers Use Only

Paid preparers must sign your return. Anyone you pay to prepare your return must sign it and fill in the other blanks in the paid preparer's signature section of the return. The preparer may sign it by hand or any other method of electronic signature acceptable to the Internal Revenue Service. If someone prepares your return and does not charge you, that person should not sign the return. You should, however, ensure that you record the name of the person who prepared the return and how to contact the preparer in case there are questions after the return is filed. Paid preparers are subject to certain requirements. For more information, see Penalties and Interest on page 12.

A paid preparer with an 11-digit New Mexico CRS identification number enters it in the space provided at the bottom of page 2 of Form PIT-1. NOTE: A paid preparer who is not required to have a New Mexico CRS identification number is not required to complete this field. Generally, persons are required to obtain a CRS identification number if they perform services in New Mexico, have an employee or a business location in New Mexico, sell property in New Mexico or lease property employed in New Mexico.

A paid preparer also enters a Federal Employer Identification Number (FEIN) if applicable, and an IRS-issued Preparer Tax Identification Number (PTIN) in the space provided. Include the phone number of the paid preparer.

Tax Preparer's Requirement to Ensure Returns are Filed Electronically. Tax practitioners who prepare more than 25 New Mexico personal income tax returns must ensure that each return is submitted by department-approved electronic media, unless the taxpayer whose return is being prepared requests otherwise. A $5 penalty per return is assessed for personal income tax preparers who fail to comply with this requirement.

The requirement applies only to returns filed for the tax year immediately preceding the calendar year in which it is filed.

Department-approved electronic media includes a New Mexico personal income tax return transmitted electronically or submitted in paper form with a 2D Bar Code printed on Form PIT-1 that contains the taxpayer's tax return information. The information in the 2D Bar Code is electronically captured. An electronically transmitted return can be transmitted through the Department's Internet web site or transmitted through the Internet using an approved third party software or online program.

A taxpayer whose return is being prepared may elect to waive the tax preparer's requirement to file by electronic media. If the taxpayer does not wish the return to be filed by department-approved electronic media, the preparer must keep a signed Form RPD-41338, Taxpayer Waiver for Preparers Electronic Filing Requirement, on file, and must mark the checkbox in the Paid Preparer's signature section on the return. Form RPD-41338 does not need to be submitted to the Department with the return.

Now continue with Step 4.

STEP 4
Check the figures on your return and on the attachments.

Transfer the figures accurately from your working copy if you prepared one. Check your arithmetic one more time. Enter all items in blue or black ink. Please do not use pencil.

STEP 5
Sign and date your return. Please include your telephone number and E-mail address at the bottom of page 2 of Form PIT-1. Complete the PIT-PV Payment Voucher if your return shows tax due on line 37.

Sign and date your original return.

If you are married and filing a joint return, both spouses must sign it. Your return cannot be processed if you do not sign it.

Parents of minor children, guardians of dependent taxpayers, surviving spouses, or estate administrators must sign the tax return on behalf of the minor child, dependent or deceased taxpayer. Print or type the relationship under the signature.

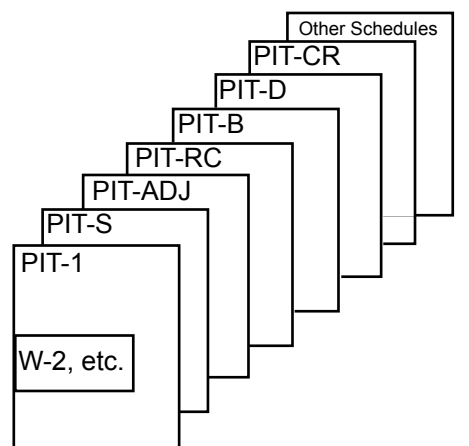

Paid preparers must sign your return.

STEP 6
Assemble your return (and Payment Voucher if your return shows tax due).

Submit only original, official state forms. Copies and poor quality printed forms cause a delay in processing your return. Keep a copy of your original return and attachments in a safe place in case you need to refer to them at a later date. If someone prepares your return for you, be sure to get a copy for your records.

Refer to the correct way to assemble your return and the various attachments below for the most efficient handling. You can help ensure that your return (and your refund, if you are entitled to one) is processed as quickly as possible by taking a few moments to assemble your forms as shown below.

NOTE: Do not use staples or tape to assemble your return.

- 2012 Form PIT-1
- 2012 Schedule PIT-S, if required

KEEP COPIES OF YOUR TAX RECORDS AND RETURNS.
Please remember to keep a copy of your completed income tax return for at least ten years after you file it.

- 2012 Schedule PIT-ADJ, if required
- 2012 Schedule PIT-RC, if required
- 2012 Schedule PIT-B, if required
- 2012 Schedule PIT-D, if desired
- 2012 Schedule PIT-CR, if required
- Other required schedules or attachments
- Payment (check or money order)
- PIT-PV Payment Voucher
- Please do not staple or tape your payment to your payment voucher.

Submit your return and attachments including copies of your annual statements of income and withholding forms W-2 or other annual income or withholding statement.

STEP 7
Checklist

Before you mail your return, a quick check will help you avoid common errors that may delay your refund. Complete the Filing Checklist on page 32 and then go to step 8.

STEP 8
Electronically file your return or ensure you mail your return to the correct address.

If mailing your return to the Department, address your envelope as follows:

Mail refund returns and returns without a payment attached to:

Taxation and Revenue Dept.
P.O. Box 25122
Santa Fe, NM 87504-5122

Mail returns with a payment attached to:

Taxation and Revenue Dept.
P.O. Box 8390
Santa Fe, NM 87504-8390

Do not submit a photocopy of the Form PIT-1 and schedules to the Department. Submit only original forms. Keep a copy for your records.

The Department encourages all taxpayers to file electronically whenever possible. Electronic filing is fast, safe and secure. It provides the fastest turnaround for a refund and saves tax dollars. A return filed electronically costs less than a paper return. Taxpayers who file and pay electronically receive an extension of the filing deadline through April 30, 2013. The filing deadline is April 15, 2013 for all other taxpayers. See WHEN AND WHERE TO FILE AND PAY on page 11 for details.

When to Call About Your Refund --

Generally, electronically filed returns claiming a refund are processed within two to four weeks. A paper return received in the Department early in the tax season takes six to eight weeks. If you file a paper return after March 15, you may not receive your refund for up to 12 weeks.

The status of your refund is now available electronically through the Department's web site, at www.tax.newmexico.gov/Online-Services/Pages/Home.aspx. Click on "Check my Refund". You will need your social security number(s) and the amount of refund due.

If you have to call to ask where your refund check is, please wait until sufficient time has passed for the Department to process your refund claim, then call (505) 827-0827.

Have a copy of your tax return available when you call or visit us on the web.

New Mexico Taxpayer Bill of Rights

Most tax transactions happen without incident. In an imperfect world, however, occasional disagreements occur through misunderstanding, mathematical error, missed deadlines, misplaced papers, high volume of transactions and many other situations. Over the years the Legislature and the Department have established ways to handle difficulties according to the provisions of the state tax code. Following are some of your rights. Should you wish to consult the law itself, you will find it in Sections 7-1-4.1 through 4.3 NMSA 1978:

- The right to available public information and prompt and courteous tax assistance;
- The right to representation and advice by counsel or other qualified representatives at any time during your interactions with us according to provisions of Section 7-1-24 NMSA 1978;

- The right to have audits, inspections of records and meetings conducted at a reasonable time and place according to Sec. 7-1-11 NMSA 1978;
- The right to simple, non-technical information explaining procedures, remedies and rights during audit, protest and collection proceedings under the Tax Administration Act;
- The right to receive an explanation of audit results and the basis for audits, assessments or denials of refunds that identify tax, interest or penalty due;

- The right to seek review through formal or informal proceedings of findings or unfavorable decisions arising from determinations during audit or protest procedures according to Sec. 7-1-24 NMSA 1978;
- The right to have your tax information kept confidential unless otherwise specified by law in Sec. 7-1-8 NMSA 1978;
- The right to an abatement of an assessment of taxes incorrectly, erroneously or illegally made (Sec. 7-1-28 NMSA 1978) and a right to seek a compromise of an asserted tax liability. When the Secretary of Taxation and Revenue in good faith doubts that you owe us what we claim you owe, you also have the right to seek a compromise if one exists in your particular case (Sec. 7-1-20 NMSA 1978);
- The right to clear information of the consequences if a tax assessment is not paid, secured, protested or otherwise provided for according to Sec. 7-1-16 NMSA 1978. If you become a delinquent taxpayer, upon notice of delinquency you have the right to timely notice of collection actions that require sale or seizure of your property under the Tax Administration Act, and
- The right to pay your tax obligations by installment payment agreements according to the provisions of Sec. 7-1-21 NMSA 1978.

Confidentiality Provisions:

Statutes regulating the confidentiality of your taxes continue to be strict. Sec. 7-1-8 NMSA 1978 requires the department to answer questions about whether a taxpayer is registered to do business in this state or is registered for other tax programs, but it does not allow employees to reveal whether you have filed a return. A hearing officer's written ruling on questions of evidence or procedure according to Sec. 7-1-24 NMSA 1978 may be made public, but not the name and identification number of the taxpayer requesting the ruling. Now included in public record are the monthly gasoline tax reports of numbers of gallons of gasoline and ethanol-blended fuels received and deducted, and the tax paid by each filer or payer of the tax. Identities of rack operators, importers, blenders, suppliers or distributors and the number of gallons of gasoline and other fuels are public record. The department may make known to the Gaming Control Board the tax returns of license applicants and their affiliates.

Audit Provisions:

We must provide you with written, dated notice that an audit is about to begin on a specific date, and the notice must tell you which tax programs and reporting periods will be covered. We must issue a second notice, which states any outstanding records or books of account requested and not yet received, between 60 and 180 days after the audit begins. If you do not produce the records within 90 days, the department can issue an assessment of tax on the basis of the information as it stands. If you need additional time, you must submit a specific request in writing. Interest on outstanding liabilities accrues if the department does not issue an assessment within 180 days of the notice of outstanding records or books, or within 90 days after time has expired under your request for additional time; however, you are entitled to an abatement of interest for the period of time after you have complied with department requests and the department has not acted on the audit.

Administrative Hearing Procedures:

A department hearing officer may not engage as an employee in enforcing or formulating general tax policy other than to conduct hearings. You may request the Secretary to determine if a hearing officer's activities have affected his or her impartiality, and the Secretary may assign the case to another hearing officer. Hearing officers may not communicate unilaterally about a matter you have protested while that matter is still pending. The Secretary may appoint another hearing officer if that occurs. You may request a written ruling on any contested question of evidence in matters in which you have filed a pending written protest.

You also may request that two or more protests on related issues be combined and heard jointly, and the hearing officer shall grant the request unless it creates an unreasonable burden on the department.

Credit Claims:

The department has 180 days from the filing date to approve or deny a statutory tax credit. If it does not act, the credit is approved. The Secretary decides whether a refund of tax due you may be offset against your other tax liabilities, and you will receive notice that the refund will be made accordingly. You are entitled to interest until the tax liability is credited with the refund amount. Please see the paragraph above on "Audit Provisions" for interest due you if the department does not offset a refund or credit against your other tax liabilities within the prescribed time. The department may make a direct refund of overpaid taxes to the taxpayer without requiring the taxpayer to file a refund claim. The department does not have to pay interest on credits or refunds if it applies the amount to a tax interception program, to an estimated payment, or to offset prior liabilities of the taxpayer.

Awarding of Costs and Fees:

If you prevail in an administrative or court proceeding brought by you or against you after July 1, 2003, under the Tax Administration Act, you will receive a judgment or a settlement for reasonable administrative costs connected to the action.

Penalty:

The department may not assess penalty against you if you fail to pay tax when due because of a mistake of law made in good faith and on reasonable grounds. If the Secretary determines that it is unfair to hold a spouse or former spouse liable for payment of unpaid taxes, the Secretary may decline to take action against the spouse or former spouse of the person who actually owes the tax. In extreme cases of delinquency under Sec. 7-1-53 the department may enjoin a taxpayer from continuing in business after a hearing and until the delinquency is cleared.
