Important Information

HOMESTEAD INCOME LIMIT INCREASED

The maximum household income eligible for a homestead refund has increased to $28,000.

TIPS FOR FILING YOUR HOMESTEAD CLAIM

Spend less time completing the claim. Follow the easy steps on page 23 to complete an accurate claim and prevent delays in processing your refund.

Reporting your income. When completing lines 4 through 9 of Form K-40H, be sure you enter the total received during 2006 for each category of income, not just the monthly amount. For example, if you receive $842 Social Security per month (including the Medicare deduction), enter $842 X 12 or $10,104 on line 6 of Form K-40H, not just the $842. Entering monthly rather than yearly amounts is the most common error made on Homestead claims.

To speed processing:

- ◆ Use only BLACK or DARK BLUE ink to complete the claim so the processing system can properly read each letter or number.
- ◆ Do not send a photocopy of the claim.
- ◆ Please do not staple, tape or otherwise attach any of the documents. Place all forms/documents loose in the envelope.

Computer Software Applications. If you are using a computer software program to prepare Form K-40H, be sure it has been approved by the Kansas Department of Revenue. A list of approved software vendors is on our web site at www.ksrevenue.org. When completing Form K-40H for a taxpayer required to file a federal return, be sure to enter the Kansas adjusted gross income amount (line 3 of Form K-40) on line 4 of the Homestead claim, not the federal adjusted gross income amount (line 1 of Form K-40).

FOOD SALES TAX REFUND

If you qualify for a Homestead Refund, you may also qualify for the Food Sales Tax Refund. The Food Sales Tax Refund is for Kansas residents who meet qualifications similar to those for the Homestead Refund and whose calculated income (Kansas adjusted gross income plus certain interest and retirement benefits exempt from Kansas taxation) is less than $28,601.

To request a refund, complete the Food Sales Tax Refund worksheet in the Kansas Individual Income Tax Booklet and enter the amount of your refund on line 25 of Form K-40, Individual Income Tax/Food Sales Tax Refund form. To obtain copies of Form K-40, refer to the back cover of this booklet.

HOMESTEAD REFUND ADVANCEMENT PROGRAM

This program provides eligible homeowners with the opportunity to apply a portion of their anticipated 2006 Homestead refund to help pay the first half of their property tax. A brief explanation of the program is on page 5. Use the information and worksheet on page 19 to understand how the refund process works with this option.

To participate in the Homestead Advancement Program, mark the checkbox on the front of Form K-40H. If the box is marked on the 2006 K-40H, the 2007 homestead advancement will be sent directly from KDOR to the County Treasurer, thereby eliminating the need for the homestead claimant to physically deliver the homestead eligibility letter to the County Treasurer (see page 20).

GENERAL INFORMATION

WHAT IS THE HOMESTEAD REFUND?

The Homestead Refund is a rebate of a portion of the property taxes paid on a Kansas resident's homestead. Your refund percentage is based on your total household income. If you own your home, the refund is a percentage of your general property tax. If you rent your home, 20% of the "rent paid for occupancy" is used as the property tax amount. The maximum refund is $600.

WHAT IS A HOMESTEAD?

A homestead is the house, apartment, rented room, boarding house, mobile or manufactured home, or other dwelling (such as a nursing home, retirement home, or assisted living facility) subject to property tax that you own or rent and occupy as a residence.

If you moved during 2006, you may claim the general property tax or rent paid for the period of time you lived in each residence. Homeowners who rent part of their homestead or use a portion of it for business may claim only the general property tax paid for the part in which they live.

WHAT IS RENT PAID FOR OCCUPANCY?

Rent paid for occupancy is the amount of rent YOU paid during 2006 to occupy your homestead. The value of the furniture, appliances, utilities, or services furnished by your landlord must be deducted from the total rent you paid during the year. Renters must complete Schedule RNT to determine the amount of rent paid for occupancy. If you live in a nursing home or share living quarters with your landlord, follow the special instructions on the back of Schedule RNT.

WHO MAY QUALIFY?

The Homestead Refund Program is for homeowners and renters who were residents of Kansas all of 2006. As a Kansas resident the entire year, you are eligible if your total household income is $28,000 or less and you:

- were born before January 1, 1951, OR
- were blind or totally and permanently disabled all of 2006, OR
- have a dependent child who lived with you the entire year who was born before January 1, 2006, and was under the age of 18 all of 2006.

WHAT IS A HOUSEHOLD?

A household is you, or you and your spouse who occupy a homestead, or you and one or more individuals not related as husband and wife who together occupy a homestead.

WHAT IS HOUSEHOLD INCOME?

Household income is generally all taxable and nontaxable income received by all household members during 2006. If a household member lived with you only part of the year, you must include the income he or she received during the months that individual lived with you.

Household income includes, but is not limited to:

- Taxable and nontaxable wages, salaries, and self-employment income;
- Earned income credit;
- Taxable and nontaxable interest and dividends;
- Social Security and Supplemental Security Income, (SSI) benefits (except disability payments);
- Railroad Retirement benefits (except disability payments);
- Veterans' benefits and all other pensions and annuities (except disability payments);
- Welfare and TAF (Temporary Assistance to Families) payments;
- Unemployment, worker's compensation and disability income;
- Alimony received;
- Business and farm income;
- Gain from business property sales, investment property sales, and any long-term capital gains included in federal adjusted gross income;
- Net rents and partnerships (cannot be a negative number);
- Foster home care payments, senior companion stipends, and foster grandparent payments;
- School grants and scholarships (unless paid directly to the school);
- Gambling winnings, jury duty payments, and other miscellaneous income;
- ALL OTHER INCOME received during 2006 not specifically excluded (see below).

Net operating losses and net capital losses can not be used to reduce total household income. DO NOT subtract any net operating loss or net capital loss from the income amounts.

Excluded Income — DO NOT include these items as household income.

- Social Security disability payments
- SSI disability payments
- Railroad disability payments
- Veterans disability pensions
- Previous year's Homestead refund, Food Sales Tax or Income Tax refund
- Utility refunds
- Food stamps (Vision cards)
- Personal or student loans
- Lump sum settlements (such as those from an insurance policy)

- Gifts from nongovernmental sources
- Child support
- Income of a minor child or incapacitated person if he or she does not hold legal title to the homestead or is not a party to the rental agreement.

Although these types of income are not to be entered on lines 4 through 9 of Form K-40H, it is recommended that you enter the total amount(s) received during 2006 from these sources on the back of Form K-40H in the "Excluded Income" section. Furnishing this additional information may help to speed processing of your claim.

WHO MAY CLAIM A REFUND

Only one claim may be filed for each household. A husband and wife who occupy the same homestead will file one claim. Two or more individuals who together occupy the same household may only file one claim. A husband and wife who occupy separate households (such as one spouse living in a nursing home) may file separate claims and include only their individual income.

Homeowners - You must not owe any delinquent property taxes on your home. You must enclose a copy of your property tax statement with your claim.

Renters - The rental property must be on the tax rolls and subject to property tax. You may claim only that portion of the rent YOU pay. Rent paid for you from public funds (such as HUD) is not considered.

IMPORTANT: If the property you rent is not on the tax rolls, you do not qualify for a Homestead refund.

If a claimant is incapable of signing the claim, the claimant's legal guardian, conservator, or attorney-in-fact may file the claim. When filing on behalf of an eligible claimant, a copy of your legal authority is required. See Signature, page 20.

WHERE TO GET FORMS

A Homestead Claim Booklet is mailed to individuals who filed a 2005 claim and whose address has not changed. If you have moved or if you have not filed before, you may pick up the Homestead Claim Booklet at our Topeka Assistance Center, driver's license stations, your city or county clerk's office, banks, libraries, post offices, or other places where state tax forms are available. The forms and booklet are also available from our web site at www.ksrevenue.org.

If you are unable to obtain forms locally, call our forms line at (785) 296-4937, and we will mail them to you. Please allow 10 days for delivery.

WHEN AND WHERE TO FILE

File your claim after December 31, 2006, but NO LATER THAN April 15, 2007. If you do not have the pre-addressed envelope, mail your claim to:

Homestead Claim
Kansas Department of Revenue
915 SW Harrison St.
Topeka, KS 66699-2000

Late Claims – The department may accept a claim filed after the due date whenever good cause exists, provided that the claim is filed within four years of the original due date. Examples of good cause include, but are not limited to, absence of the claimant from the state or country or temporary illness of the claimant at the time the claim was due. When filing a late claim, enclose an explanation with documentation as to why it is late. If your homestead claim will be late because you have an extension of time to file your income tax return, enclose a copy of the income tax extension with your homestead claim.

DECEASED CLAIMANTS

When the person who has been the claimant for a household dies, another member of the household who qualifies as a claimant should become the claimant and file Form K-40H for the household. A separate claim on behalf of the decedent is not necessary.

Husband and wife are both over 65, and their household income is less than $28,000. The husband died during 2006. Since the widow also qualifies because of age and income to be the claimant, she will file Form K-40H as the claimant, reporting her income and that of her husband through the date of his death.

Two sisters, both over 58, share a home, and their household income is $24,000. If the sister who had been the claimant dies in 2007 prior to filing Form K-40H, the other sister (who is also eligible) will file as the claimant, reporting the total of both incomes for the entire year of 2006.

If another member of the decedent's household (such as a surviving spouse) does NOT qualify to be the claimant, or when there are no other members of a decedent's household, a claim may be filed for a deceased claimant if the decedent:

- A) was a resident of Kansas all of 2006 but died before filing a claim (died on or after January 1, 2007),
- OR
- B) died during 2006 and was a Kansas resident the entire portion of the year he or she was alive.

A surviving spouse, executor or administrator, or any other heir at law may claim the homestead refund due a decedent.

IMPORTANT: Mark an "X" in the decedent box located to the right of the "Last Name" area on the front of Form K-40H, and enter the date of death in the space provided.

How To Compute a Decedent's Refund

If filing on behalf of a claimant who died during 2006, the refund amount (line 15 of Form K-40H) is prorated based on the decedent's date of death. If the claimant was a homeowner, the taxes (line 11 of Form K-40H) are also prorated based on the decedent's date of death.

Use the steps and worksheet on the following page to compute a Homestead refund on behalf of a decedent who died during 2006.

Step 1 Complete Form K-40H through line 10 using the line-by-line instructions that begin on page 15.

Step 2 Compute the Allowable Property Tax and/or Rent paid by decedent to date of death.

Owners: The allowable property tax is the percentage of taxes accrued to the decedent's date of death. Multiply the total 2006 property taxes by the percentage from the table below for the month of the decedent's death. Enter the result on line 11, Form K-40H. For example, if the claimant died in August 2006, and the 2006 taxes were $645, the property tax paid to date of death to enter on line 11 is 8/12ths (.667) of $645, or $430 ($645 X .667 = $430).

Renters: Enter on line 2 of Schedule RNT only the rent paid by the claimant through the date of his or her death. Enter the total of all line 5 amounts from Schedule(s) RNT on line 12, Form K-40H.

Step 3 Complete line 13 (total property taxes and rent) and line 14 (refund percentage) of Form K-40H.

Step 4 Multiply line 13, Form K-40H by line 14 of Form K-40H, and enter the result here: _____.

Step 5 Enter the percentage from table below for the month of the decedent's death: _____.

Step 6 Multiply the answer from Step 4 by the percentage in Step 5 (same percentage used in Step 2 above for homeowners): _____.

Enter the result here and on line 15, Form K-40H.

MONTH	PERCENTAGE	MONTH	PERCENTAGE	MONTH	PERCENTAGE
January	.083	May	.417	September	.750
February	.167	June	.500	October	.833
March	.250	July	.583	November	.917
April	.333	August	.667	December	1.000

The claimant died August 25. Income through August was $14,500. Total 2006 taxes were $645; the allowable amount entered on line 11 (and line 13) is $430. The homestead refund percentage is 64%. Calculate Line 15 as follows:

$$\begin{aligned} $430 \times 64\% (.64) &= $275.20 \\ $275.20 \times .667 &= $183.56 \end{aligned}$$

Round this amount to $184, and enter on line 15 of Form K-40H.

Required Enclosures for Decedent Claims

You must enclose a copy of the death certificate, funeral home notice, or obituary statement with a decedent's claim, AND one of the following:

- If the estate is being probated, a copy of the Letters of Testamentary or letters of administration.
- If the estate is not being probated, a completed Form RF-9, Decedent Refund Claim, on page 22.

Signature on a Decedent's Claim: A decedent's claim should be signed by the surviving spouse, executor/executrix, administrator, or other authorized person.

AMENDING A CLAIM

If after mailing your claim you find that you have made an error that will affect the amount of your refund, file an amended Form K-40H. Wait until you have received your refund from the first claim before filing the amended claim. To file an amended claim, obtain another copy of Form K-40H, and mark the "amended" box located to the right of the county abbreviation. Enter the information on the claim as it should have been, and enclose an explanation of the changes. If an additional refund is due you will receive it in 10 to 12 weeks.

If the refund shown on the amended claim is LESS than the refund you received from the original claim, enclose a check or money order for the difference with your amended claim. Make your check payable to "Kansas Department of Revenue". Write "Homestead Repayment - Amended Claim" and your Social Security number on the face of your payment.

HOMESTEAD REFUND ADVANCEMENT PROGRAM (Homeowners Only)

This optional program allows eligible homeowners who received a 2005 Homestead refund to use their anticipated 2006 Homestead refund (advancement) to pay up to the first half of their 2006 property taxes. The amount of the advancement is based on the 2005 Homestead refund.

A taxpayer must mark the check box on the front of form K-40H to participate in the advancement program in the upcoming year. A letter showing the advancement amount available will be sent to eligible homeowners (those who have no outstanding tax liability to the department) in November of each year. For more information about using this option for the first half of your property taxes, contact your county clerk or the Kansas Department of Revenue.

If you used this program to pay all or part of your first half 2006 property taxes, use the information and worksheet on page 19 to compute the remainder of the refund you will receive from the department once you have filed your Form K-40H, and if applicable, your Form K-40 for tax year 2006.

FRAUDULENT CLAIMS

The Homestead Refund Program is designed to provide tax relief only to those that qualify. Fraudulent refund claims filed will be denied and may result in criminal prosecution.

Your December, 2006 Social Security check is $795.20. You are covered by Medicare. Compute your total 2006 Social Security benefits as follows.

$$$795.20 + $88.50 = $883.70$$

For those persons who lived with you less than 12 months, include only the income they received during the months they lived with you. Be sure to list these individuals in the Members of Household section on the back of the claim.
- The income (child support, SSI, wages, etc.) of a minor child or incapacitated person ONLY when that person is an owner of the homestead or is on the rental agreement.
- Any other income as outlined in What is Household Income on page 3 that has not been entered on lines 4 through 8.

Enclose with Form K-40H a list showing the recipient(s), source(s), and amount(s) for the income entered on line 9.

Line 10 — Total Household Income

Add lines 4 through 9 and enter the total on line 10.

To expedite your refund claim, enclose a copy of pages 1 and 2 of your federal return (1040, 1040A or 1040EZ), statements from SRS and Social Security, and other documentation of the income amounts shown on lines 4 through 9.

If the amount on line 10 is over $28,000, you do not qualify for a Homestead Refund.

EXCLUDED INCOME (back of Form K-40H)

All claimants are encouraged to complete this section on the back of Form K-40H. We may be able to process your claim more quickly if you furnish this additional information about the sources of your excludable income.

Enter the total received during 2006 by all household members (including minor children) from each of the sources listed — child support, personal and student loans, Social Security Disability, Railroad and Veteran's Disability, etc. For example, if you received child support of $50 per month, enter $600 ($50 X 12 months) in the child support box. Enter under "Other" the wages received by a minor child, and any other income not considered to be household income (see What is Household Income, page 3). To verify that the Social Security is excludable disability income, you must enclose a copy of your benefit statement or award letter with your claim.

REFUND — Lines 11 through 15

Line 11 — Owner

If you own your home, enter on line 11 the total 2006 general property tax you have paid or will pay, as shown on your 2006 real estate tax statement. DO NOT include:

- Special assessment taxes, such as those levied for streets, sewers, or utilities;
- Charges for services, such as sewer services;
- Interest or late charges;
- Taxes on agricultural or commercial land.

If you are filing on behalf of a claimant who died during 2006, the property tax must be prorated based on the decedent's date of death. Follow the special instructions for decedents beginning on page 4 to determine the property tax amount to enter here.

2006 Property Tax Statement

You MUST enclose a copy of your 2006 property tax statement (not the receipt) with Form K-40H to verify the general property tax amount entered on line 11. This copy will not be returned. A property tax receipt that contains a breakdown of property tax among the general tax, special tax, fees, etc. (such as a receipt that is an exact copy of the statement) is also acceptable.

CAUTION: The annual statement from your mortgage company and some property tax receipts are NOT acceptable because they do not have a breakdown of the tax paid among general tax, special tax, late fees, etc. If you do not have a copy of your property tax statement, contact your county clerk and request a copy for Homestead purposes.

If you owned and lived in more than one homestead during 2006, enclose a copy of the 2006 property tax statement for each. If you sold a homestead you owned and occupied during 2006, you must enclose proof of the general property tax you paid before or at the time your homestead was sold. A copy of the real estate closing statement is acceptable. You may not claim more than 12 months' property taxes.

Mobile and Manufactured Home Owners

If you own your mobile home or manufactured home, enter on line 11 the personal property taxes you paid on your home, as well as the general property tax paid on the land. Enclose both tax statements with Form K-40H.

If you own your mobile home, but rent the land or lot on which it sits, complete a Schedule RNT for the rent paid on the land. Enter the amount from line 5 of Schedule RNT on line 12 of Form K-40H.

Farm Owners

If your homestead is part of a farm covered by a single property tax statement, you may use only the general property tax paid on the HOMESITE.

OWNER'S STATEMENT

You MUST complete the Owner's Statement section on the back of Form K-40H if the name on your property tax statement:

- is followed by "et al" (and others);
- has two or more names on it; OR
- does not include your name.

Tenants in Common

You must also complete the Owner's Statement if the title to your homestead is in your name and the name(s) of another person(s) other than a member of your household as tenants in common. Only the portion of the general property tax that reflects your ownership percentage is to be entered on line 11. Enter your percentage of ownership in the space provided in the Owner's Statement section on the back of Form K-40H.

Rental or Business Use of Homestead

If a portion of your homestead was rented to others or used for business purposes during 2006, you may only claim the amount of property taxes paid on the portion of your homestead you used for personal purposes.

Complete the following worksheet to determine the percent of rental or business use to enter in the Owner's Statement section, and the property tax amount to enter on line 11, front of Form K-40H.

If you filed Schedule C or C-EZ, Form 1040, complete only lines 4 through 6 of the worksheet.

WORKSHEET for RENTAL or BUSINESS USE of HOME
1. Total number of rooms in your homestead.	_____
2. Number of rooms rented or used for business.	_____
3. Divide line 2 by line 1. This is the percent of rental or business use. Enter this percentage in the Owner's Statement section, back of Form K-40H.	_____ %
4. Total 2006 general property tax.	_____
5. Multiply line 4 by line 3. (If you claimed a property tax deduction on Schedule C or C-EZ, Form 1040, enter the amount from Schedule C or C-EZ on line 5.) This is the rental/business portion of the property taxes.	_____
6. Subtract line 5 from line 4. This is the general property tax on the nonbusiness portion of your homestead. Enter this amount on line 11 of Form K-40H.	_____

NOTE: You must also include the income received from the rental or business use of your homestead on line 4 or line 5 of Form K-40H.

Line 12 — Renter

To qualify under the renter provisions of the homestead law, the property you rent must be subject to property tax. Before completing Schedule RNT for the rent you paid, you MUST contact the county clerk, your landlord, or authorized agent to be sure the property is on the tax rolls.

If the property you rented all of 2006 is not on the tax rolls, you do not qualify for a Homestead Refund.

A renter's homestead refund is based on 20% of the "rent paid for occupancy." This is the total rent paid during 2006, less the value of any furniture, utilities, or services paid for or furnished by your landlord.

SCHEDULE RNT

If you rent your homestead, you must complete a Schedule RNT for each property you lived in during 2006, even if you paid no rent. Follow the detailed instructions on the back of Schedule RNT and the additional information and examples for special housing situations that follow to complete an accurate rental schedule.

Low Income Housing

If you rent low income or subsidized housing, check with your landlord to make sure the property is subject to property tax. (As a general rule, if you pay your rent to a local housing authority, the property is owned by the city and is not subject to property tax.) No homestead refund is allowed on a residence not subject to property tax.

Section Eight Housing

If you rent Section Eight Housing, part or all of your rent is paid by HUD (Housing and Urban Development). You may claim on Schedule RNT only the portion of rent YOU paid.

Rent on your apartment is $300 per month. HUD pays $275, you pay the remaining $25. Only the $25 you pay is used to compute the total rent paid on line 2 of Schedule RNT.

If line 13 is $425, and line 14 is 40%: $$425 \times 40\% (.40) = \170 . Enter $170 on line 15 of Form K-40H.

Nursing Home, Retirement, or Assisted Living Facility Residents.

If the facility in which you are living and paying rent is subject to property tax, complete Schedule RNT for the rent you paid. If welfare or public assistance funds are paid directly to the nursing home for your rent, you may only use the rent YOU pay in completing Schedule RNT.

Your nursing home costs $80 per day, billed monthly as $2,400. You pay $950 per month; the balance is paid by SRS. Use the $950 per month you paid to figure the total rent amount to enter on line 2 of schedule RNT.

IMPORTANT: You must enclose ALL Schedule RNT forms with Form K-40H. The total rental period shown on Schedules RNT must cover all 12 months of calendar year 2006.

Line 13 — Total (not to exceed $600)

Add lines 11 and 12. If the total is $600 or less, enter the total of lines 11 and 12 on line 13.

Your mobile home taxes (line 11) are $285. Your lot rent paid as property tax (line 12) is $120. $$285 + $120 = $405$. Enter $405 on line 13.

If the total of lines of 11 and 12 is more than $600, enter $600 on line 13.

Your general property tax on line 11 is $750; line 12 is blank. Enter $600 (the maximum amount allowed) on line 13.

Line 14 — Homestead Refund Percentage (From the chart on page 6)

Your refund percentage is based on your total household income on line 10. Find your income on the left of the chart, and enter the corresponding percentage on line 14. If the percentage is less than 100%, leave the first box blank. For example, if the percentage is 40%, enter it like this:

Line 15 — Homestead Refund

IMPORTANT: If you are filing this claim on behalf of a claimant who died during 2006, follow the special instructions for decedent claims on pages 4 and 5 to complete line 15.

Multiply line 13 by the percentage on line 14. Enter the result on line 15 of Form K-40H. Note: If the amount on line 15 is less than $5, it will not be refunded.

You will receive a check for the amount on line 15 if:

- there are no corrections made to your claim; AND
- as a homeowner, you did not participate in the optional refund advancement program (refer to Refund Advancement Program below); AND
- you owe no other debt to the State of Kansas (see the following Debtor Set-Off section).

Debtor Set-Off - If you owe a delinquent debt to the State of Kansas (such as child support, student loan, medical bills, or income tax), your Homestead Refund will be applied to that debt first, and any remaining refund will be sent to you. However, this set-off process will cause a delay of up to 12 weeks for any remaining refund.

REFUND ADVANCEMENT PROGRAM (Home Owners)

If you participated in the refund advancement program by marking the check box on your 2005 Homestead Claim, K-40H, the amount the Kansas Department of Revenue paid to the county for your property tax on your behalf is in our records as a balance due. The department will recover this advanced amount when your 2006 Homestead Claim, Form K-40H and Individual Income Tax/Food Sales Tax Return, Form K-40, are processed in 2007.

Your refund(s) will be applied to the amount the department sent to the county for your property tax in December 2006, and the balance of credit sent to you as a refund check. As a general rule, the Income Tax and/or Food Sales Tax Refund return, Form K-40, will be processed before your Homestead Claim, Form K-40H.

If you have a refund due on both the K-40H and K-40 returns, wait until both returns are processed before expecting a refund check. Your refund(s) are also subject to debtor set-off for other delinquent debts owed to the State of Kansas.

If you participated in the optional refund advancement program for your 2006 taxes, use the worksheet below to determine the amount of refund you will receive from the department as a check. You may also figure your net refund by adding the refund amounts from K-40 and K-40H together, then subtracting the advancement amount.

Refund Advancement Worksheet

1. 2006 Homestead Refund from Line 15 of Form K-40H.
2. 2006 Homestead Refund Advancement amount from advancement letter.
3. Subtract line 2 from line 1.

You will receive the amount on Line 3 as a check from the department if you have no other delinquent debts due the State of Kansas (see Debtor Set-Off above).

Note: Your income tax and/or food sales tax refund on Form K-40 may also be applied to the advancement amount.

IMPORTANT: If your 2006 Homestead refund (line 15, Form K-40H) is LESS than the advancement amount (line 2 of the worksheet on page 19), you should pay the difference to the Kansas Department of Revenue with your 2006 Form K-40H. Make your check or money order payable to Kansas Department of Revenue. Be sure your Social Security number and tax period are indicated on your payment.

2007 ADVANCEMENT BOX. Your 2007 homestead advancement information will be electronically transferred to the County Treasurer if you check this box. By checking this box, you are requesting that the Department of Revenue electronically transfer your 2007 homestead advancement information directly to the County Treasurer – you will no longer receive a Certificate of Eligibility letter as you have in the past. If you do not check this box, you can not participate in the 2007 homestead advancement program – in which case none of your 2007 homestead refund will be used to pay your 2007 property taxes.

MEMBERS OF HOUSEHOLD

IMPORTANT: All claimants must complete this section on the back of Form K-40H.

As the claimant, enter your information on the first line.
