Yes. If you file a return that fraudulently claims a credit, you will be assessed a penalty equal to 50 percent of the fraudulently claimed credit.

Line Instructions

Line 1—Child and Dependent Care Credit (Schedule M1CD)

Married persons filing separate returns cannot claim this credit.

To qualify for the Child and Dependent Care Credit, your adjusted gross income must be less than $64,230 with one qualifying person or $76,230 with two or more qualifying persons, and one of the following must apply:

- You paid someone (other than your dependent child or stepchild younger than age 19) to care for a qualifying person while you (and your spouse if filing a joint return) were working or looking for work. A qualifying person and qualified expenses are the same as for the federal credit for child and dependent care expenses.
- You were a licensed family daycare operator caring for your own dependent child who had not reached the age of six by the end of the year.
- You are married and filing a joint return, your child was born in 2019, and you did not participate in a pretax dependent care assistance program.
