PENNSYLVANIA PROPERTY TAX or RENT REBATE PROGRAM 2023

WHAT IS THE PROPERTY TAX/RENT REBATE PROGRAM?

A Pennsylvania program providing rebates on property tax or rent paid the previous year by income-eligible seniors and people with disabilities.

AM I ELIGIBLE?

The program benefits income-eligible Pennsylvanians age 65 and older; widows and widowers age 50 and older; and people with disabilities age 18 and older.

ELECTRONIC PTRR FILING

Pennsylvanians can visit mypath.pa.gov to file their Property Tax/Rent Rebate program applications. It's free to use and has many benefits for applicants, including:

- Error reducing automatic calculators
- Faster processing
- Direct deposit
- Ability to upload required documents
- Security features to ensure your sensitive information is safe
- User-friendly features that are not available when filing a paper application

CHECK APPLICATION STATUS

Applicants can check the status of their rebates using the myPATH portal (mypath.pa.gov).

Be sure to include a valid phone number on your application to receive updates automatically. The department will make automated phone calls to advise when your claim is received and again when your claim is approved for payment. These calls begin around April.

If you prefer to call to check the status of your application, you may dial 1-888-PA-TAXES.

DIRECT DEPOSIT

Get your rebate faster with direct deposit. See Pages 12 and 13 for details.

WHAT'S NEW THIS YEAR?

Governor Josh Shapiro delivered on a promise he made to older Pennsylvanians when he signed a new law that significantly expands the Property Tax/Rent Rebate (PTRR) program, the largest targeted tax cut for Pennsylvania seniors in nearly two decades.

Under the expansion first proposed by the Governor, nearly 175,000 more Pennsylvanians qualify for a property tax or rent rebate. At the same time, many of the 430,000 claimants who previously qualified under the program's prior guidelines will see their rebates increase.

Here are the specific changes that will be in effect as eligible Pennsylvanians apply for rebates on property taxes or rent paid in 2023:

- The income cap for homeowners has increased from $35,000 to $45,000
- The income cap for renters has increased from $15,000 to $45,000
- The maximum standard rebate has increased from $650 to $1,000

This is the first time the program has been expanded since 2006. Additionally, the income limits will be tied to the cost of living – which means older Pennsylvanians and those with disabilities will not lose out on their rebates through no fault of their own.

Governor Shapiro pushed to make these commonsense changes to boost a program that provides a lifeline for hundreds of thousands of Pennsylvanians, helping many of them to age in place in their homes.

BEFORE YOU BEGIN

STATE SUPPLEMENTARY PAYMENT RECIPIENTS

The State Supplementary Payment (SSP) is not included on your SSA-1099 form. The Department of Human Services will issue annual statements to verify your SSP benefit. SSP is still considered reportable income. As with other Social Security income, only half of the SSP income needs to be included on Line 4 of the Property Tax/Rent Rebate claim form.

SOCIAL SECURITY RECIPIENTS WITH PA ADDRESSES

If you were a Pennsylvania resident for all of 2023, you do not have to submit proof of your Social Security income including Social Security retirement and Supplemental Security benefits. The Social Security Administration provides Social Security income information to the PA Department of Revenue. The PA Department of Human Services will provide State Supplementary Payment information to the department.

However, you or the person who prepares your claim will need these statements to correctly calculate the amount of your rebate. If none of these documents are available, you or your preparer will need to estimate the amount you received during the year. If the dollar amount you provide is not correct, the department will adjust the amount of your rebate based upon income amounts reported directly to the department by the Social Security Administration or the Department of Human Services.

SOCIAL SECURITY RECIPIENTS WITHOUT PA ADDRESSES

If your address in Social Security Administration records was not a Pennsylvania address for 2023, you must submit a copy of one of the following documents as proof of your 2023 Social Security income: Form SSA-1099 reporting your 2023 Social Security benefits, a statement from Social Security that reports the monthly or yearly Social Security/Supplemental Security Income benefits you received during 2023, or a bank statement showing the amount of Social Security/Supplemental Security Income benefits deposited into your account during 2023.

PHILADELPHIA RESIDENTS

Please read the special filing instructions on Page 11.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

You are eligible for a Property Tax/Rent Rebate for claim year 2023, if you meet the requirements in each of the three categories below:

CATEGORY 1 – TYPE OF FILER

- You were 65 or older as of Dec. 31, 2023;
- You were not 65, but your spouse who lived with you was 65 or older as of Dec. 31, 2023;
- You were a widow or widower during all or part of 2023 and were 50 or older as of Dec. 31, 2023; or

- You were permanently disabled and 18 or older during all or part of 2023, you were unable to work because of your medically determined physical or mental disability, and your disability is expected to continue indefinitely. If you received Supplemental Security Income (SSI) payments, you are eligible for a rebate if you meet all other requirements.

NOTE: If you applied for Social Security disability benefits and the Social Security Administration did not rule in your favor, you are not eligible for a Property Tax/Rent Rebate as a disabled claimant.

CATEGORY 2 – ELIGIBILITY INCOME

When calculating your total eligible annual household income, exclude one-half of your Social Security benefits as shown in Box 5 of your SSA-1099 statement, one-half of your Supplemental Security Income benefits, one-half of your State Supplementary Payment benefits and one-half of any Railroad Retirement Tier 1 benefits as shown on Form RRB-1099.

Your total eligible annual household income, including the income that your spouse earned and received while residing with you, was $45,000 or less in 2023.

You must report all items of income, except the nonreportable types of income listed on Pages 8 and 9, whether or not the income is taxable for federal or PA income tax purposes.

NOTE: There may be differences between eligibility income and PA-taxable income. Please see specific line instructions for each category of income.

CATEGORY 3 – OWNER, RENTER OR OWNER/RENTER

To file as a property owner, renter, or owner/renter, you must meet all requirements for one of the following categories:

OWNER

- You owned and occupied your home, as evidenced by a contract of sale, deed, trust, or life estate held by a grantee;
- You occupied your home (rebates are for your primary residence only); and
- You or someone on your behalf paid the 2023 property taxes on your home.

RENTER

- You rented and occupied a home, apartment, nursing home, boarding home, or similar residence in Pennsylvania;
- Your landlord paid property taxes or agreed to make a payment in lieu of property taxes on your rental property for 2023 (see Page 12); and
- You or someone on your behalf paid the rent on your residence for 2023.

OWNER/RENTER

- a. You owned, occupied, and paid property taxes for part of the year and were a renter for part of the year;
- b. You owned and occupied your home and paid property taxes and paid rent for the land upon which your home is situated; or
- c. You paid rent for the home you occupied, and paid property taxes on the land upon which your home is situated.

CAUTION: As a renter, if you received cash public assistance during 2023, you are not eligible for any rebate for those months you received cash public assistance. Please complete a PA-1000 Schedule D (enclosed in this booklet).

PROOF DOCUMENTS THAT FIRST TIME FILERS MUST SUBMIT

IMPORTANT: Please send photocopies, since the department cannot return original documents. Print your Social Security Number (SSN) on each proof document that you submit with your claim form.

- If you are age 65 or older, provide proof of your age.
- If you are under age 65 and your spouse is age 65 or older, provide proof of your spouse's age.
- If you are a widow or widower age 50 to 64, provide proof of your age and a photocopy of your spouse's death certificate.
- If you are permanently disabled, age 18 to 64, you must provide proof of your age and proof of your permanent disability.

PROOF OF AGE

NOTE: If you receive Social Security or SSI benefits and have proven your age with the Social Security Administration, you do not need to submit proof of age.

IMPORTANT: The department accepts photocopies of the following documents as proof of your age. Do not send your original documents since the department cannot return original documents.

- Birth certificate
- Blue Cross or Blue Shield 65 Special Card
- Church baptismal record
- Driver's license or PA identification card
- Hospital birth record
- Naturalization/immigration paper, if age is shown
- Military discharge paper, if age is shown
- Medicare card
- PACE/PACENET card
- Passport

The department will not accept a Social Security card or hunting or fishing license as proof of age.

If you have questions on other types of acceptable documents, please call the department at 1-888-222-9190.

PROOF OF DISABILITY

- For Social Security disability, SSI permanent and total disability, Railroad Retirement permanent and total disability, or Black Lung disability, provide a copy of your award letter.
- For Veterans Administration disability, provide a letter from the Veterans Administration stating that you are 100 percent disabled.
- For Federal Civil Service disability, provide a letter from Civil Service stating that you are 100 percent disabled.
- If you do not qualify under any of the disability programs mentioned above, did not apply for Social Security benefits, or do not have a letter from the Veterans Administration or Civil Service Administration, you must submit a Physician's Statement of Permanent Disability (PA-1000 PS), enclosed in this booklet. The form must describe your disability as permanent and your physician must sign the statement to certify that the information is true and accurate to the best of his/her knowledge and belief.

IMPORTANT: The Physician's Statement of Permanent Disability cannot be used if you were denied Social Security disability. The Department of Revenue has the legal authority to require additional evidence that you are permanently disabled and eligible for a rebate.

HOUSEHOLDS WITH MORE THAN ONE QUALIFIED CLAIMANT

Only one member of your household may file a claim even if more than one person qualifies for a rebate. If someone other than your spouse appears on the deed or the lease, please complete a PA-1000 Schedule F (enclosed in this booklet). You may apply for only one rebate each year.

DECEASED CLAIMANT

To be eligible for a rebate, the claimant must have lived at least one day of a claim year, owned and occupied and paid taxes or rented and occupied and paid rent for the claim year during the time period the claimant was alive. The property tax paid for a deceased claimant will be prorated based upon the number of days the claimant lived during the claim year. See Schedule A for the calculation of the prorated property tax rebate.

To determine if a deceased claimant is eligible for a rebate, a deceased claimant's claim form must also include an annualized income amount in the calculation of total household income. See Schedule G, specifically the instructions for Line 11g, for information on the calculation of annualized income to be included in household income. A copy of the death certificate must also be included with the claim form.

A surviving spouse, estate or personal representative may file a claim on behalf of a deceased claimant. A personal representative can also have a previously filed rebate issued in his or her name, instead of the name of the decedent, in certain circumstances. Please see sections entitled SURVIVING SPOUSE, AN ESTATE, and PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE for details.

SURVIVING SPOUSE

The surviving spouse can file the completed claim and include a copy of the death certificate and a letter stating that he/she was the spouse of the claimant at the time of death. The surviving spouse may sign on the claimant's signature line.

OR

If the surviving spouse is eligible to file a claim, he/she can file under his/her own name instead of submitting a claim using the deceased individual's claim form.

The surviving spouse should print his/her name, address, and Social Security Number (SSN) in Section I, and follow the filing instructions. The surviving spouse should furnish proof required for a first time filer. Do not use the label the department sent to the decedent in the booklet. The surviving spouse should enter the deceased spouse's SSN and name in the spouse information area, and fill in the oval "if Spouse is Deceased", located in the area next to the Spouse's SSN on the claim form.

AN ESTATE

The executor or the administrator of the claimant's estate may file the claim and submit a Short Certificate showing the will was registered or probated. When there is no will and there are assets (an estate), submit a copy of the Letters of Administration. A Short Certificate or Letters of Administration can be obtained from the county courthouse where the death is recorded. The person filing the claim form on behalf of the deceased person may sign on the claimant's signature line.

PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE

If a person dies and there is no will, the will has not been registered or probated or there is no estate, then a personal representative may file a claim on behalf of an eligible decedent. A decedent's personal representative must submit a copy of the decedent's death certificate, a DEX-41, Application for Refund/Rebate Due the Decedent, and a receipted copy of the decedent's funeral bill showing that the personal representative personally paid the decedent's funeral expenses in an amount that is greater than or equal to the amount of the property tax/rent rebate to which the decedent is entitled.

If a person dies after filing a claim and there is no will, or if the will has not been registered or probated, or there is no estate, then a personal representative can also request that the department change the rebate to be issued into his/her name. In cases where the rebate check has been received but cannot be cashed, the check must be returned with a request to have the rebate issued in the name of the personal representative. The decedent's personal representative must submit a copy of the decedent's death certificate, a DEX-41, Application for Refund/Rebate Due the Decedent, and a receipted copy of the claimant's funeral bill showing that the personal representative personally paid the funeral expenses in an amount that is greater than or equal to the amount of the property tax/rent rebate to the claimant is entitled.

The DEX-41, Application for Refund/Rebate Due the Decedent, can be obtained by visiting the department's website at www.revenue.pa.gov or by using one of the department's Forms Ordering Services found on Page 18.

If you have any questions regarding the filing of a claim on behalf of a deceased claimant, please call the department at 1-888-222-9190.

PRIVACY NOTIFICATION

By law, (42 U.S.C. § 405(c)(2)(C)(i); 61 Pa. Code §117.16) the Pennsylvania Department of Revenue has the authority to use the Social Security Number (SSN) to administer the Property Tax or Rent Rebate Program, the Pennsylvania personal income tax and other Commonwealth of Pennsylvania tax laws. The department uses the SSN to identify individuals and verify their incomes. The department also uses the SSN to administer a number of tax-offset and child-support programs federal and Pennsylvania laws require. The commonwealth may also use the SSN in exchange-of-tax-information agreements with governmental authorities.

Pennsylvania law prohibits the commonwealth from disclosing information that individuals provide on income tax returns and rebate claims, including the SSN(s), except for official purposes.

PA - 1000 FILING INSTRUCTIONS

SECTION I - SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER, NAME, ADDRESS AND RESIDENCE INFORMATION

You must fill in your Social Security Number and enter your county and school district codes even if using the preprinted label. If you are not using software or myPATH to prepare your claim and your label is correct, place your label in Section I. If you or your preparer are using software or myPATH to prepare your claim, or if any information on the preprinted label is incorrect, discard the label. If not using a label, follow the instructions for printing letters and numbers and completing your name and address.

If your spouse lived in a nursing home the entire year do not include his/her Social Security Number on the claim form. He or she may qualify for a separate rebate on the rent paid to the nursing home.

IMPORTANT TIPS: There are two lines to enter your address. For the First Line of Address, enter the street address. If the address has an apartment number (APT), suite (STE), floor (FL) or rural route number (RR), enter it after the street address. If the street address and the apartment number, suite, etc. do not fit on the First Line of Address, enter the street address on the Second Line of Address and the apartment number, suite, etc. on the First Line of Address. For the Second Line of Address, enter the post office box, if applicable. If there is no post office box, leave the Second Line of Address blank.

The U.S. Postal Service prefers that the actual delivery address appears on the line immediately above the city, state and ZIP code. Do not include any punctuation such as apostrophes, commas, periods and hyphens.

- Use black ink. Another color such as red ink will delay the processing of your rebate claim.
- Do not use pencil or pens labeled as gel pens or any red ink.
- Print all information on your claim neatly inside the boxes.
- Use upper case (capital) letters. Use a blank box to separate words.
- Print one letter or number in each box when entering your Social Security Number, name, address, dollar amounts, and other information. If your name, address, or city begins with Mc, Van, O', etc., do not enter a space or a punctuation mark.
- Completely fill in all the appropriate ovals on your claim form.

Sample

M	C	D	O	E						J	O	H	N								A
A	P	T		4	5	6
1	2	3		A	N	Y		S	T

J	A	N	E							A		2	2			2	2	2	7	5	U	S

As a claimant, you must provide your birth date, telephone number, county code, school district code, and, if applicable, your spouse's Social Security Number, birth date, and name. If your spouse is deceased, completely fill in the oval "If Spouse is Deceased" in Section I of the form.

COUNTRY CODE

If your current mailing address is in the United States of America, you are not required to enter a country code. The department will automatically include the correct code for you. However, if - you lived at least part of the year in Pennsylvania; you meet the eligibility requirements for a property tax or rent rebate; and your current mailing address is in any other country, you must enter the alphabetic abbreviation for your mailing address country. The list of alphabetic abbreviation country codes can be found at <https://www.irs.gov/e-file-providers/foreign-country-code-listing-for-modernized-e-file> under the country codes menu selection.

COUNTY & SCHOOL CODES

You must enter the two-digit county code and five-digit school district code for where you lived on Dec. 31, 2023, even if you moved after Dec. 31, 2023. Using incorrect codes may affect your property tax rebate.

IMPORTANT: The lists of county and school district names and the respective codes are on Pages 15, 16 and 17. If you do not know the name of the county or school district where you reside, you can either 1) check the county and school property tax bills used to complete this claim if you are a property owner, or 2) obtain this information from the Online Customer Service Center at www.revenue.pa.gov.

NOTE: Be sure to include your phone number when completing the claim form. The department will make automated phone calls to advise when claims are received and again when they are approved for payment.

SECTION II - FILING STATUS CATEGORIES

Line 1 - Please fill in the oval that shows your correct filing status. Fill in only one oval. Filling in more than one oval may reduce the amount of your rebate.

(P) Property Owners: Fill in this oval if you owned and occupied your home for all or part of 2023 and did not rent for any part of the year. If your deceased spouse's name is on your deed or tax bills, include the decedent's Social Security Number and name.

(R) Renters: Fill in this oval if you rented and occupied your residence for all or part of 2023.

(B) Owner/Renter: Fill in this oval if you owned and occupied your residence for part of 2023, and also rented and occupied another residence for the rest of 2023, or if you owned your residence and rented the land where your residence is located.

EXAMPLE: John pays property taxes on a mobile home that he owns and occupies. His mobile home is on land that he leases. John may claim a property tax rebate on the mobile home and a rent rebate on the land. See Pages 9, 11 and 12 for documents you must send as proof of property taxes or rents paid.

Line 2 - Certification. Please read each description and select the type of filer that applies best to your situation as of Dec. 31, 2023. A surviving spouse age 50 to 64 is eligible for a rebate as a widow or widower, while a surviving spouse who is 65 or older can file as a claimant. A surviving spouse under 50 may be able to file a claim for a deceased claimant if the deceased was 65 or older. Please complete the claim form using your Social Security Number, name and address, and supply all appropriate documentation.

- a. Claimant age 65 or older
- b. Claimant under age 65, with a spouse age 65 or older who resided in the same household (You must submit proof of your spouse's age the first time you file.)
- c. Widow or widower, age 50 to 65 (If your most recent marriage ended in divorce, you do not qualify as a widow/widower.)
- d. Permanently disabled and age 18 to 64

See Page 4 for acceptable proof of age documents.

Line 3 - If you are filing on behalf of a decedent (a claimant who died during the claim year who otherwise would have been an eligible claimant under a, b, c or d for Line 2 above), completely fill in the oval. The type of claimant under which the decedent qualifies under Line 2 above must also be included. A copy of the death certificate must be submitted and Schedule G must be completed.

SECTION III - LINES 4 THROUGH 18

You must report the total household income you earned and/or received during 2023 for each category, which includes your spouse's income earned and/or received while residing with you.

All claimants must submit proof of annual income.

IMPORTANT: The department reserves the right to request additional information or make adjustments to federal data if credits or deductions were taken to reduce income.

CAUTION: Spouses may not offset each other's income and losses.

The department has the legal authority to require evidence of the income you report on your claim. The following lists the kinds of income you must report and the documents you must submit as proof of the reported income. You must include the income that your spouse received while residing with you. See Pages 8 and 9 for a list of the kinds of income that you do not need to report.

NOTE: Print your Social Security Number on each Proof Document that you submit with your claim form.

Line 4 - Include one-half of your 2023 Social Security Benefits as shown in Box 5 of your benefit statement SSA-1099, one-half of your 2023 SSI, one-half of your 2023 Social Security Disability Income, and one-half of your 2023 State Supplementary Payment. No documentation is required, if using a PA address.

Line 5 - Include one-half of your Railroad Retirement Tier 1 Benefits. Submit a copy of form RRB-1099.

CAUTION: The total income from old age benefit programs from other countries, such as Service Canada Old Age Security, must be converted into U.S. dollars and reported on Line 6.

Line 6 - Include the gross amount (not the taxable amount) of pensions, annuities, Individual Retirement Account distributions, Tier 2 Railroad Retirement Benefits, and Civil Service Disability Benefits. Do not include Black Lung Benefits, federal veterans' disability payments, or state veterans' benefits. State veterans' benefits include service connected compensation or benefits of any kind provided to a veteran or unmarried surviving spouse paid by a commonwealth agency or authorized under the laws of the commonwealth. Submit photocopies of pension/annuity benefits statements along with other forms 1099 showing income for 2023.

IMPORTANT: Do not include rollovers from Individual Retirement Accounts and employer pensions. However, proof must be provided. Proof includes, but is not limited to, a federal Form 1099-R showing a rollover or other documentation indicating that the distribution was rolled into a new account.

If you have one or more distributions from annuity, life insurance or endowment contracts reported on Form 1099-R that are included as interest income on your PA-40 Personal Income Tax Return, please write "Included as Interest Income on PA-40" across the top of any Form 1099-R for such distributions and include copies of all your Forms 1099-R with your claim form.

Line 7 - Report interest and dividends received or credited during the year, whether or not you actually received the cash. If you received dividends and capital gains distributions from mutual funds, report the capital gains distributions portion of the income as dividends, not as gains from the sale or exchange of property. Include interest received from government entities. You must also include all tax-exempt interest income from direct obligations of the U.S. government, any state government, or any political subdivision thereof in the amount shown on Line 7. SUBMIT THE FOLLOWING:

- A copy of your federal Form 1040 Schedule B or your PA-40 Schedule A and/or B; or copies of any federal Forms 1099 you received; OR
- A copy of the front page of your PA or federal income tax return verifying the income reported on Line 7.

IMPORTANT: If you received capital gains distributions from a mutual fund, you must use PA Schedule B or the front page of your PA tax return to verify your income. If you have PA tax-exempt interest income, you must include federal Form 1040 Schedule B along with a copy of the front page of your federal tax return.

Line 8 - Include gains or losses you realized from the sale of stocks, bonds, and other tangible or intangible property as well as any gains or losses realized as a partner in a partnership or shareholder in a PA S corporation. Do not include capital gains distributions from mutual funds required to be reported on Line 7.

NOTE: The nontaxable gain on the sale of your principal residence must also be reported on this line. If you realized a loss from the sale of your principal residence, this loss may be used to offset any other gains you realized from the sale of tangible or intangible property. However, any net loss reported on this line cannot be deducted from any other income. You may also submit photocopies of each PA Schedule RK-1, PA Schedule NRK-1 or federal Schedule K-1 that shows your gains or losses for each partnership or PA S corporation.

Submit a copy of your federal Form 1040 Schedule D, a copy of your PA-40 Schedule D, or copies of any federal Forms 1099 you received which will verify any gains or losses you realized. If you received capital gains distributions from mutual funds, do not include a copy of federal Form 1040 Schedule D. You must include a copy of your PA-40 Schedule D.

If you sold your personal residence during this claim year, submit a statement showing the sale price less selling expenses, minus the sum of the original cost and permanent improvements.

CAUTION: You may only use losses from the sale or exchange of property to offset gains from the sale or exchange of property.

Line 9 - Include net rental, royalty, and copyright income or loss realized during 2023 from property owned and rented to others, oil and gas mineral rights royalties or income received from a copyright as well as any net income or loss realized as a partner in a partnership or shareholder in a PA S corporation.

CAUTION: You may only use rental losses to offset rental income.

IMPORTANT: If you receive income from the rental of a portion of your own home, you must complete and submit a PA-1000 Schedule E (enclosed in this booklet). Submit a copy of your federal Form 1040 Schedule E, Part I, or PA-40 Schedule E from your income tax return. You may also submit photocopies of each PA Schedule RK-1, PA Schedule NRK-1 or federal Schedule K-1 that shows your net income or loss from rents, royalties, patents and copyrights for each partnership or PA S corporation.

Line 10 - Include net income or loss from a business, profession, or farm, and net income or loss you realized as a partner in a partnership or a shareholder in a PA S corporation.

CAUTION: You may only use business losses to offset business income.

IMPORTANT: If you operate your business or profession at your residence, you must complete and submit a PA-1000 Schedule E (enclosed in this booklet).

Submit a photocopy of each federal Form 1040 Schedule C or F, or PA-40 Schedule C or F from your income tax return. You may also submit photocopies of each PA Schedule RK-1, PA Schedule NRK-1, or federal Schedule K-1 that shows your income or loss for each business.

Lines 11a - 11g - Other Income - Complete Lines 11a through 11g to report all other income that you and your spouse earned, received, and realized.

For each category of income on Lines 11a through 11g, you must submit proof, such as photocopies of Forms W-2, Department of Human Services cash assistance statements, your federal or PA income tax returns, and any other documents verifying income.

Line 11a. - Gross salaries, wages, bonuses, commissions, and estate or trust income not included in business, profession, or farm income.

Line 11b. - Gambling and lottery winnings, including PA Lottery, Powerball and Mega Millions winnings, prize winnings, and the value of other prizes and awards. (A PA-40 Schedule T must be submitted to verify these winnings, as well as a W-2G to document PA Lottery winnings.)

Line 11c. - Value of inheritance, alimony, and spousal support money.

Line 11d. - Cash public assistance/relief, unemployment compensation, and workers' compensation benefits, except Section 306(c) benefits.

Line 11e. - Gross amount of loss of time insurance benefits, disability insurance benefits, long-term care insurance benefits (if received directly by the claimant), and life insurance benefits and proceeds, except the first $5,000 of the total death benefit payments.

Line 11f. - Gifts of cash or property totaling more than $300, except gifts between members of a household.

Line 11g. - Miscellaneous income and annualized income amount. Include any income not identified above prior to the calculation of annualized income. If a claimant died during the claim year, an annualized income amount must also be included. To calculate the annualized income amount, complete Schedule G. When adding amounts for Line 3 of Schedule G, do not add any negative amounts reported on Lines 8, 9 or 10.

Do not report the following income:

- Medicare or health insurance reimbursements;
- Food stamps, surplus foods, or other such non-cash relief supplied by a governmental agency;
- Property Tax/Rent Rebate received in 2023;
- The amount of any damages due to personal injuries or sickness. Damages include Black Lung benefits and benefits granted under Section 306(c) of the Workers' Compensation Security Fund Act (relating to Schedule of Compensation for disability from permanent injuries of certain classes);
- Payments provided to eligible low-income households under the commonwealth's Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program;
- Payments received by home providers of the domiciliary care program administered by the Department of Aging, except those payments in excess of the actual expenses of the care;
- Disability income received by disabled children in the household;
- Federal veterans' disability payments or state veterans' benefits received by the veteran or unmarried surviving spouse;
- The difference between the purchase price of your residence and its selling price, if you used the proceeds from the sale to purchase a new residence. This new residence must be your principal residence;
- Federal or state tax refunds;
- Spouse's income earned or received while not living with you;
- Public Assistance benefits received by children in the household, even though the check is issued in claimant's name;
- Qualified distributions from ABLE (Achieving a Better Life Experience) Savings Programs;
- Federal stimulus or economic impact payments;
- STRIVE Program credits;
- Child support; and

- Individual Retirement Account and employer pension rollovers (must provide a copy of federal Form 1099-R indicating rollover or other supporting documentation).

CAUTION: If a claimant had significant income that is not typically received in equal amounts throughout the claim year, or if the number-of-days method does not accurately calculate the annualized income, the claim may be filed using an alternative method for determining the annualized income amount to be included on Line 11g. A worksheet must be included to show how the amount of annualized income was determined in those instances. The worksheet must clearly show how the income was determined and an explanation of the reason for deviating from the Schedule G method. Examples of when the claim would be filed using an alternative method would include instances where there is income from a one-time event such as a gain on the sale of stock, lump sum payments from an IRA or annuity, an amount is reported as an inheritance or a payment is received as a beneficiary on a life insurance policy. Proof of the deviation from the number-of-days method may be required by the department. The department will accept reasonable methods of calculating the annualized income amount.

Line 12 - If you and/or your spouse received benefits from the federal Civil Service Retirement System (CSRS) as (a) retired federal civil service employee(s) or as a surviving spouse, you may reduce your total eligibility income by 50% of the average retired worker Social Security payment for 2022. The average retired worker Social Security payment for 2022 is $9,948. Enter $9,948 on Line 12 only if you include CSRS benefits in Line 6. If both you and your spouse received CSRS benefits, or if you received your own CSRS benefits and CSRS benefits as a surviving spouse, enter $19,896 on Line 12. Otherwise, enter $0.

Line 13 - Add the positive income figures reported on Lines 4 through 11g, subtract the amount on Line 12 (if applicable) and enter the net result on Line 13 and 23. Do not include losses reported on Lines 8, 9 and/or 10.

IMPORTANT: If you have over $45,000 of income claimed on Line 13, you are not eligible for either Property Tax or Rent Rebate relief under this program.

Line 14 - For Property Owners Only

Before completing Line 14 of the claim form, complete any schedules listed in the instructions for this line. If you must complete more than one schedule, you must complete them in alphabetical order. If one schedule does not apply to you, skip it, and go to the next schedule. You must carry forward, as the total tax paid, the last amount shown on the previous schedule you complete to the next schedule you complete.

Enter the total amount of the property taxes paid for your primary residence, or the amount shown as eligible property taxes paid on the last schedule completed.

IMPORTANT: If you do not enter the amount of all taxes paid on the primary residence, you will limit the department's ability to determine your eligibility for and amount of a supplemental rebate. See Page 14 for more information on supplemental rebates.

You must deduct interest or penalty payments, municipal assessments, per capita taxes, or occupation taxes included in your payment. If you paid early and received a discount, you enter the amount you actually paid on Line 14. You must also deduct other charges included in your tax bills. See taxes that are not acceptable on Page 11.

If your name does not appear on the receipted tax bills, you must submit proof of ownership. Examples of proper proof are: a copy of the deed or a copy of the trust agreement, will, or decree of distribution if you inherited your property. If your address is not on your receipted property tax bill or mortgage statement, you also must submit a letter from your tax collector or mortgage company verifying your home address.

NOTE: If your tax bills include a name and/or names other than yours and your spouse's, you must complete PA-1000 Schedule F or submit proof that you are the sole owner of the property.

Include only the property tax on the amount of land that is necessary for your personal use.

PA-1000 Schedule A - If you owned and occupied your home for less than the entire year of 2023 or a claim is being filed on behalf of a deceased owner who died during 2023.

PA-1000 Schedule B - If you were a widow or widower age 50 to 64 who remarried in 2023.

PA-1000 Schedule E - If you used part of your residence for a purpose other than living quarters in 2023.

PA-1000 Schedule F - If your deed shows owners other than your spouse.

As proof of property tax paid, homeowners must provide photocopies of one of the following real estate documents:

- All 2023 real estate tax bills that have been marked "paid" by the tax collector (see the instructions beginning on this page for the proper calculation of the amount on Line 14). If you paid your taxes in quarterly installments, a tax bill must be submitted for each period. For tax bills that are not marked paid by the tax collector, the department will accept a photocopy of both sides of the cancelled check along with a copy of the tax bill;
- Your year-end mortgage statement showing the amount of real estate taxes paid;
- A letter signed by the tax collector certifying that you paid your 2023 real estate taxes. The letter should also declare the total tax does not include nuisance taxes or penalty; OR
- A receipted copy of your tax billing from your owner's association or corporation. Resident stockholders of a cooperative housing corporation, such as a condominium, may qualify as property owners based on their pro rata share of the property taxes paid to the corporation for their residence.

Additionally, if a deceased individual owned, paid property taxes on and resided in a Pennsylvania located home during 2023 and died during the claim year, complete the address and occupancy dates and complete the information for the First Home column for Lines 1 through 5. If the deceased previously owned another Pennsylvania located home before owning the Pennsylvania located home he or she was living in preceding death, complete the address and occupancy dates along with Lines 1 through 5 for both columns of the form. If the deceased resided part of a year outside PA, do not claim the property tax paid for that period. Enter zero in the appropriate column on Line 1. If the deceased paid property taxes and resided in a Pennsylvania located home during 2023, then sold the property, moved into a rental property and paid rent; or if the deceased lived in a rental property and paid rent, then bought a Pennsylvania located home, paid the property taxes and resided in that home for the remainder of his or her life, complete the address and occupancy dates and complete the information for the First Home column for Lines 1 through 5 for the portion of the year that the deceased owned the home. The surviving spouse, estate or personal representative claiming the rebate on behalf of the deceased should also complete a PA Rent Certificate for the portion of the year the deceased rented a Pennsylvania located rental property.

Total taxes paid on Line 1 for the First Home Column includes the amount of property taxes paid by the claimant directly or on the claimant's behalf from an escrow account for a claimant that owned the first home as of Jan. 1 of the claim year. For first homes purchased during the claim year, include the amount of property taxes paid by the claimant directly or on the claimant's behalf from an escrow account and the total property taxes, before any pro-rata allocation of the property taxes, from a HUD-1 Closing Statement from the purchase of the property. Total taxes paid on Line 1 for the Second Home Column includes the amount of property taxes paid by the claimant directly or on the claimant's behalf from an escrow account and the total property taxes, before any pro-rata allocation of the property taxes, from a HUD-1 Closing Statement from the purchase of the property.

The following types of receipted real estate tax bills are acceptable:

- County
- School district
- City
- Borough
- Township

Taxes/charges that are not acceptable (even if based on millage):

- Flat rate charges
- Footage charges
- Personal property tax
- Per capita tax
- Occupational privilege tax
- Sewer rent
- Garbage collection charges
- Municipal assessments such as, or including, road, institution, street, library, light, water, fire, debt, and sinking fund taxes
- Interest or penalty payments

If your tax bills contain any of these charges, you must deduct them when completing Line 14.

ATTENTION PHILADELPHIA RESIDENTS:

The City of Philadelphia has provided the department with electronic records of all receipted 2023 property tax bills for Philadelphia that were paid by Dec. 31, 2023. If you live in the City of Philadelphia and paid your 2023 property taxes by Dec. 31, 2023, do not include a copy of your receipted property tax bills. If you live in Philadelphia and paid your 2023 property taxes in 2024, please submit proof of payment as outlined in the preceding information.

NOTE: You or the person who prepares your claim will need to know the amount of tax you paid in order to correctly calculate your rebate. If you do not have a copy of your original tax bill or a copy of your tax payment, you or your preparer will need to estimate the amount of taxes you paid. If the tax amount you provide is not correct, the department will adjust the amount of your rebate based upon the paid taxes reported to the department by the City of Philadelphia.

Line 15 - To determine the amount for Line 15, start with the amount of your total income on Line 23. In Table A, find the income range that includes your Line 23 amount and circle the corresponding maximum standard rebate amount. Compare your maximum standard rebate amount to the amount on Line 14 and enter the lesser amount on Line 15. The maximum standard rebate cannot exceed $1,000.

Line 16 - For Renters Only

PA Rent Certificate (PA-1000 Schedule RC) - You must always complete this schedule before completing Line 16 or the additional schedules noted later in the instructions for this line. If none of the additional schedules apply, report the amount from Line 8 of Schedule RC on Line 16 of your claim form.

You may claim a rebate only if you pay rent to a property owner for a dwelling that you rent for use as a home that is a self-contained unit.

NOTE: A landlord-tenant relationship exists when the landlord (lessor) provides the claimant (lessee) with a lease for a self-contained unit. This usually means a separate kitchen, bath and bedroom.

The landlord (lessor) must maintain a lease agreement, have separate utility bills, have other evidence of a self-contained unit and report the rental income on federal and PA tax returns. If the landlord (lessor) also claims a Property Tax/Rent Rebate, they must submit a PA-1000 Schedule E (enclosed in this booklet), and provide their federal or PA tax return. You, as the claimant for a rebate, are responsible to prove a landlord-tenant relationship. Self-contained dwellings for rent eligible for rent rebates can include:

- Apartment in a house
- Apartment building
- Boarding home
- Mobile home
- Mobile home lot
- Nursing home
- Private home
- Personal care home
- Assisted living
- Domiciliary care
- Foster care

Rent Payment Subsidies - For the purpose of this rebate claim, subtract rent payment subsidies provided by or through a governmental agency from the total rent you paid. See Line 5 of the PA Rent Certificate.

Renters must provide one of the following proof documents:

1. A fully completed PA Rent Certificate (PA-1000 Schedule RC), filled out by the landlord, for each place you rented during the year. Keep copies for your records. Your landlord or his/her authorized agent should complete Lines 1 through 8 and sign the PA Rent Certificate.
2. A fully completed PA Rent Certificate, filled out by the claimant, along with a notarized Occupancy Affidavit or rent receipts. If you cannot get your landlord to sign the form, you must still complete and submit the PA Rent Certificate (PA-1000 Schedule RC) along with the notarized Occupancy Affidavit that is below the PA Rent Certificate. The reason the landlord's signature could not be obtained must be included. You may also submit the form with copies of your rent receipts. The rent receipts for each period in which you paid the rent must include the landlord or his/her agent's signature, the full amount of rent paid, your name and the complete address of the rental property.

NOTE: The department will not accept cancelled checks as proof of rent paid. Print your Social Security Number on each proof document that you submit with your claim form.

IMPORTANT: If your landlord is a tax-exempt entity and is not required to pay property taxes on your rental property, you do not qualify for a rent rebate unless your landlord makes payments in lieu of taxes. In this situation, landlords agree to make reasonable cash payments in lieu of taxes to a local government authority (county, municipality, school district, fire/police department, etc.) in order to allow their residents to claim rent rebates.

Before completing Line 16 of the claim form, complete any schedules listed in the instructions for this line. If you must complete more than one schedule, you must complete them in alphabetical order.

If one schedule does not apply to you, skip it, and go to the next schedule. You must carry forward, as the total rent paid, the last amount shown on the previous schedule you complete to the next schedule you complete.

Report the amount shown on the last schedule that applies to you on Line 16 of the claim form.

PA-1000 Schedule B - If you were a widow or widower age 50 to 64 who remarried in 2023.

PA-1000 Schedule D - If you were a renter who received cash public assistance in 2023.

PA-1000 Schedule E - If you used part of your residence for a purpose other than living quarters in 2023.

PA-1000 Schedule F - If your lease shows persons other than your spouse or minor children.

If you were required to complete Schedules B, D, E, or F, enter the lesser amount of the total rent paid in 2023 or the amount shown as eligible rents paid, on the last schedule completed.

Line 17 - Multiply Line 16 by 20 percent (0.20).

Line 18 - To determine the amount for Line 18, start with the amount of your total income on Line 23. In Table B, find the income range that includes your Line 23 amount and circle the corresponding maximum rebate amount. Compare your maximum rebate amount to the amount on Line 17 and enter the lesser amount on Line 18. The maximum standard rebate cannot exceed $1,000.

Line 19 - For Owner/Renter Only

CAUTION: As an owner/renter, only fill in Oval B (Owner/Renter) in Section B of the claim form. Do not fill in Oval P or R. Filling in other ovals may reduce your rebate amount. If you were both a property owner and a renter in 2023, you must calculate your property tax rebate separately from your rent rebate. Complete Lines 14 and 15 to calculate your property tax rebate and complete Lines 16 through 18 to calculate your rent rebate.

Add Lines 15 and 18 - To determine the amount for Line 19, start with the amount of your total income in Line 23. In Table A, find the income range that includes your Line 23 amount and circle the corresponding maximum standard rebate amount. Compare your maximum standard rebate amount to the sum of Lines 15 and 18 and enter the lesser amount on Line 19. The maximum standard rebate cannot exceed $1,000.

DIRECT DEPOSIT

Line 20 - In order to comply with banking rules, direct deposits are not available for rebates going to bank accounts outside the U.S. If your bank account is outside the U.S., do not complete the direct deposit Lines 20, 21 and 22. The department will send you a paper check.

If your rebate will be going to a bank account within the U.S., you have the option to have your rebate directly deposited.

If you want the Department of Revenue to directly deposit your rebate into your checking or savings account at your bank, credit union, or other financial institution, place an X in the appropriate box on Line 20. Then complete Lines 21 and 22.

IMPORTANT: If the direct deposit request is to a representative payee bank account or bank account for anyone other than the claimant or the claimant's spouse (in the case of a joint claim), each claim filed requesting payment to that account must include a copy of the contract, agreement, or other document authorizing the payee as the proper receiver of the claimant's rebate.

CAUTION: Be sure to enter the correct routing and account numbers. Please check with your financial institution to make sure your direct deposit will be accepted and to get the correct routing and account numbers. The Department of Revenue:

- Is not responsible for a lost rebate if you enter the wrong account information.
- Cannot change the banking information you enter in these spaces.
- Will send a check instead of making a direct deposit into your account if the information you entered is not accurate or up to date.

Please do not send a copy of a blank or voided check with your rebate application.

- Will convert a direct deposit payment request into a paper check to be mailed to the claimant if the department cannot verify the rebate is authorized for direct deposit into a representative payee bank account.

By placing an X in either box on Line 20, you are authorizing the department to directly deposit your rebate into your checking or savings account. Direct deposits cannot be made to Social Security Direct Express® cards.

IMPORTANT: Do not include a copy of a blank check with your rebate application. The department cannot complete this information on your application.

Line 21 - Routing Number

Enter your bank or financial institution's nine-digit routing number. The first two digits must be 01 through 12, or 21 through 32. Do not use spaces or special characters when entering the routing number. EXAMPLE: The routing number on the sample check above is 250250025.

If you are attempting to complete this line using a deposit slip, please contact your financial institution to determine if the routing number is correct. Many times the number on the deposit slip is for internal use by the institution and using it may delay the payment of your rebate.

NOTE: This number must be nine digits. Otherwise, your financial institution will reject the direct deposit, and the department will mail you a check.

IMPORTANT: Your check may state that it is payable through a bank different from the financial institution where you have your account (i.e. your check may have two banks listed on the face). If so, do not use the routing number on your check. Instead, ask your financial institution for the correct routing number and enter it on Line 21.

Line 22 - Checking or Savings Account Number

Enter your checking or savings account number. Your account number may be as many as 17 digits and may contain both numbers and letters.

Enter the numbers and letters from left to right. Do not use spaces or special characters when you enter your account number and leave any unused boxes blank.

EXAMPLE: The checking account number on the sample check above is 20202086. Do not include the check number. The check number on the sample check is 0001. If you are attempting to complete this line using a direct deposit slip, please contact your financial institution to determine if the account number is correct. Many times the number on the deposit slip is for internal use by the institution and using it may delay the payment of your rebate.

CAUTION: If your bank has recently changed ownership, the routing and account numbers on your check may be incorrect. Please verify the routing and account numbers with your bank before you enter them on Lines 21 and 22.

IMPORTANT: If you apply before the end of May and opt for direct deposit of your rebate, you may notice a zero dollar transaction on your April or May bank statement. This transaction is part of a security process conducted to verify your account information and ensure your rebate arrives quickly and accurately. If account information cannot be verified for direct deposit, the department will send you a paper check.

Line 23 - Total Income

Line 23 is used to determine the correct rebate amount. Enter the amount from Line 13 of the claim form on this line and circle the corresponding Maximum Standard Rebate or Maximum Rebate amount for your income level. Owners use Table A and Renters use Table B.

SECTION IV - OATH

Please read the following oath before signing the claim form.

CLAIMANT OATH: I declare that this claim is true, correct, and complete to the best of my knowledge and belief, and this is the only claim filed by members of my household. I authorize the PA Department of Revenue access to my federal and Pennsylvania personal income tax records, my PACE records, my Social Security Administration records, and/or my Department of Human Services records. This access is for verifying the truth, correctness, and completeness of the information reported in this claim.

If you do not agree with the oath, do not sign the claim form. However, the department will not process the claim form or issue a rebate without a signature.

NOTE: The Property Tax or Rent Rebate program is a benefit provided to qualifying homeowners who apply. The Department of Revenue will not place a lien or judgment on your property because of a Property Tax/Rent Rebate paid to you.

SIGNATURES: Sign and date the claim form in the space provided. The signature must match the name listed on the label or printed on the name line. If someone other than the claimant signs the claim form, a copy of the Power of Attorney, guardianship papers, or other documents entitling that person to sign must accompany the claim form. In the case of a deceased claimant, see the instructions beginning on Page 4.

If the claimant makes a mark instead of a signature, two people must sign the form as witnesses to the claimant's mark.

Also please provide the name, address, and telephone number of the claimant's nearest relative. This helps the department locate claimants if the Post Office returns a rebate check as undeliverable.

If you are signing the claim form on the behalf of the claimant(s) under the authority of a Power of Attorney, complete the name, telephone number and address lines as indicated on Page 2 of the PA-1000, Property Tax or Rent Rebate Claim Form. You must also include a copy of the Power of Attorney form with the PA-1000 claim form when filed.

SUBMIT YOUR APPLICATION

File electronically via myPATH in order to receive your rebate faster. See Page 18.

You must complete and submit one original claim form to the Department of Revenue. Do not submit a photocopy of the claim form.

IMPORTANT: Do not use staples. Using staples delays the processing of your claim and damages your claim form and other documents.

Place your completed claim form and other necessary documents in the envelope provided. Use the checklist on the back of the envelope to verify that your claim is complete. Incomplete claims will delay your rebate. If you do not have the envelope the department provided, mail your completed claim form and necessary documents to:

SUPPLEMENTAL PROPERTY TAX REBATES

Revenue from slots gaming is providing general property tax relief to all Pennsylvania homeowners. Supplemental property tax rebates, equal to 50 percent of taxpayers' base rebates, are available to provide extra relief to homeowners who need it the most.

Homeowners in Pittsburgh, Scranton and Philadelphia with eligibility income of $30,000 or less will receive additional payments, as will homeowners in the rest of the state who meet the same income-eligibility requirement and pay more than 15 percent of their household income in property taxes.

IMPORTANT: If you are eligible for a supplemental payment above the maximum rebate, the department will calculate it for you. Please follow the instructions for Lines 14 and 15 on Pages 9 and 11 of this booklet to complete your rebate application; do not adjust the amounts on Line 15.

THE PENNSYLVANIA LOTTERY

The Pennsylvania Lottery, established by law in 1971, remains the only U.S. lottery to dedicate all proceeds to benefit older adults.

Where does the money go*?

Profits based on sales and interest income

In the 2022-2023 fiscal year, the Pennsylvania Lottery generated more than $1.1 billion in net revenue to support benefits for older Pennsylvanians. This was the 12th consecutive year the Lottery generated more than $1 billion for programs that benefit Pennsylvania seniors. The Lottery achieved this by selling a total of $4.98 billion in its traditional games and recording $922.7 million in sales from online play. In addition, winners of Lottery's traditional games claimed more than $3.3 billion in prizes while winners of online instant games were awarded $772.3 million.

Since its very first game went on sale in 1972, the Pennsylvania Lottery has contributed more than $34.9 billion to programs that include property tax and rent rebates; transportation services; care services; prescription assistance; and a broad range of local services provided by Area Agencies on Aging.

The Pennsylvania Lottery is a bureau of the Pennsylvania Department of Revenue, and a successful enterprise of which all state residents may be proud.

Players must be 18 or older. Please play responsibly.

CUSTOMER SERVICES AND ASSISTANCE

PREPARATION ASSISTANCE

FREE PREPARATION ASSISTANCE

You can receive free assistance in preparing your Property Tax/Rent Rebate form through the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) and Tax Counseling for the Elderly (TCE) programs. Visit the department's website or contact the nearest Revenue district office for information.

REVENUE DISTRICT OFFICES

If you need assistance preparing your claim form or have questions, please contact your local Department of Revenue district office. See Page 19 for a list of offices.

OTHER PROGRAMS AND SERVICES

PA DEPARTMENT OF AGING (WWW.AGING.PA.GOV)

The Department of Aging has served as an advocate for the interests of older Pennsylvanians at all levels of government since 1978. Information on the following programs and services can be found on its website.

AREA AGENCIES ON AGING

Each Area Agency on Aging has trained staff available to answer questions and make referrals to other agencies in the community that provide the specific services needed by the individual. Refer to the government pages of your local phone directory to find the Area Agency on Aging office nearest you.

PACE, PACENET AND PACE PLUS MEDICARE (1-800-225-7223)

PACE, PACENET and PACE Plus Medicare are Pennsylvania's prescription assistance programs for older adults, offering low-cost prescription medication to qualified residents age 65 and older.

LONG-TERM CARE SERVICES (1-866-286-3636)

This program, administered by the Department of Human Services and funded by the Pennsylvania Lottery and federal Medical Assistance money, provides nursing facility and home- and community-based services to qualifying low-income seniors and individuals with disabilities.

FREE AND REDUCED-FARE TRANSPORTATION

The Department of Transportation distributes Lottery funding to local transit authorities to provide free and reduced-fare mass transit for older residents. Contact your local transit authority for more information.

APPRISE (1-800-783-7067)

APPRISE is a free health insurance counseling program designed to help older Pennsylvanians with Medicare. Counselors are specially trained volunteers who can answer your questions about Medicare and provide you with objective, easy-to-understand information about Medicare, Medicare Supplemental Insurance, Medicaid and Long-Term Care Insurance.

REPORT ELDER ABUSE (1-800-490-8505)

Any person who believes an older adult is being abused, neglected, exploited or abandoned may call the statewide elder abuse hotline toll-free, 24 hours a day.

ONLINE SERVICES

mypath.pa.gov

- Pennsylvanians will be able to electronically submit their Property Tax/Rent Rebate applications directly from the myPATH homepage. They can also check the status of their rebate as well. Claimants will be asked to answer questions and provide specific information when submitting an electronic application or checking the status of their rebate. The electronic application offers many user-friendly features and automatic calculators not available on the paper application.

revenue-pa.custhelp.com

- You can find answers to commonly asked questions by using the department's Online Customer Service Center. Use the Frequently Asked Questions feature to search the database of commonly asked questions. If you do not find your answer you have the ability to submit your question to a customer service representative.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
HARRISBURG

My Fellow Pennsylvanians:

When I traveled across the Commonwealth last year, I heard firsthand from seniors who told me that we need to do more to help them keep up with rising prices. No matter where I was in our state, I heard from older Pennsylvanians who told me they were struggling under the burden of rising costs – and I promised that my Administration would deliver real relief and put money back in your pockets.

I'm incredibly proud to share that I recently signed into law a bipartisan expansion of the Property Tax/Rent Rebate program, which serves as a lifeline for hundreds of thousands of Pennsylvania seniors and those with disabilities. After more than 17 years, this bill provides a crucial update to the Property Tax/Rent Rebate program that will finally ensure more Pennsylvanians get the relief they need.

I made a commitment to Pennsylvanians – and we delivered, with the largest targeted tax cut for our seniors in nearly two decades. We're putting more money into seniors' pockets so they can get a little more help to stay in their homes and afford daily necessities like gas and groceries.

Under the expansion, crucial updates are now in place as the Department of Revenue opens the filing period to submit applications for property taxes and rent paid in 2023. First, the maximum standard rebate has increased from $650 to $1,000. Meanwhile, the income limits for renters and homeowners have been made equal and increased to $45,000. Those income limits will also be tied to the cost of living starting next year, which means the people who receive a rebate won't have to worry about losing their eligibility through no fault of their own in the years to come.

Ultimately, my plan results in nearly 175,000 additional Pennsylvanians qualifying for a property tax or rent rebate. At the same time, roughly 86% of the 430,000 claimants who previously qualified for a rebate under the program's prior guidelines will see their rebates increase.

I will always work to stand up for our seniors, and I encourage every qualified Pennsylvanian to submit an application for the Property Tax/Rent Rebate program.

All the best,

JOSH SHAPIRO

Governor
